the last supper social of the season.

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

Sunday afternoon, March 29, at 4 p. m., the well-known physician, Dr. A. Wilberforce Williams, will speak on "Helping Others." Miss Carolyn Willard, a distinguished piano soloist, concert player and teacher, will furnish a few numbers. A meeting of unusual interest was held Monday evening, with supper and program. About forty guests were at the tables. The principal speaker was Miss Zona Gale, the well-known author of "Friendship Village," who read an original story. Miss Gale is deeply interested in the Douglass Center and its attendant problems. She draws no color or race lines, and accepts men and women on the basis of their human and individual worth. Mr. Horace Bridges, leader of the Ethical Culture Society, was present and spoke a word of hearty greeting and fellowship in a company about two-thirds white. He saw the approach of a true democracy, a practical illustra-
