

CLEVELAND, OHIO.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 11.—The following named Afro-Americans were recently nominated as Republican candidates for precinct committeemen: Charles Weaver, Thomas W. Fleming, J. Stewart, John Redd, G. Hutchison, Milton Crawford and John M. Clifford. The last named is a brother of Mr. William Clifford, formerly state representative, but now in the pension department at Washington. . . . Miss Carrie Crawford and Mrs. Anna Newton had as their out-of-town guests at their party given last week, Wednesday evening, Mr. Elliott Sprague of Rochester, N. Y; Mr. Alonzo Green and Macio Dixon of Wilberforce, O., and Dr. C. H. Gray of Buffalo. Dr. Gray is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, 9105 Blaine avenue. . . . Ezekiel and Red Cross Commanderies, Knights Templar, are planning to consolidate under the name of Immanuel Commandery. It is said that St. John's and Keystone Chapters are to do likewise. The consolidations will form strong organizations. . . . Mrs. Phil S. Dennie of 2285 East 90th street, went to Geneva Monday to take her little guest, Miss Dorothy La Force, to school. She has accompanied by Mrs. Wallace Bolden of East 38th street. . . . Mrs. Andrew Edwards, who has been the guest of Mrs. Sadie Cisco-Bolden of Chicago the past six weeks, returned home last week, praising most highly the hospitality of Chicago people. . . . Mr. Edgar Moore and Miss Elizabeth Towles, two of our most prominent young people, were married the past week by Rev. Charles Bundy. . . . The young ladies of the T. R. C. club of St. Andrew's church gave a very pleasant dancing party at Waldo hall on Hough avenue last Monday afternoon. . . . Rev. Charles Bundy, Editor Armand A. Forte of The Advocate, and Mr. George Sutton addressed a large audience at St. John's A. M. E. church last Sunday evening on the present European war, its causes and its effects on Liberia and other countries and Christianity. . . . The remains of Mrs. Evelyn Fitzsimmons-Weaver, formerly of Chicago, were placed in the vault at Lake View cemetery.
