

FREDERICK DOUGLASS CENTER.

3032 Wabash Avenue.

Sunday, Oct. 10, at 4 p. m., Miss Eleanor Gordon will speak on "These Troublous Times." Miss Gordon is a loyal supporter of the center, having made many friends several years ago. She will be followed by Dr. Ashburn of Lynchburg, Va., who will speak on, "The Churches' Duty in Social Service Work." Mrs. Ashburn will relate many interesting things in her work as teacher at a woman's college in Lynchburg where she is dean. Last Monday evening the directors' board and Center Woman's Club gave a welcome home reception in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Woolley, returning from their summer vacation. Mr. F. L. Barnett presiding. The speakers were Mr. S. Laing Williams, Mrs. J. T. Jenifer, Mrs. E. L. Davis, Mrs. A. D. Dickerson, Mrs. A. C. Cone, Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, Mr. E. C. Wentworth, Dr. G. C. Hall and Mrs. Woolley. Excellent musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. Smythe, Miss Daisy Russell, Mr. Peage, vocalists, and Miss Strayhorn, pianist. A gift of handsome hand painted china, the work of Miss E. Worthington, was presented to Mrs. Woolley by the Woman's Club. Refreshments were served.
