

CELEBRITIES MEET EDITOR'S MOTHER

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Aug 25, 1917;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. 6

CELEBRITIES MEET EDITOR'S MOTHER

Major Robert R. Moton, principal of Tuskegee Institute; Major Allen Washington, commandant Hampton Institute, and Emmett J. Scott, executive secretary of Tuskegee, called at the home of Editor Robert S. Abbott, 3159 State street, while in the city and met Mrs. J. H. H. Sengstacke, mother of the editor, and Miss Eliza Sengstacke, his sister. One year ago Miss Sengstacke attended the inauguration of Major Moton, "covering" the "story" for the Chicago Defender.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.