

Y. M. C. A. News

Louis C. Gregory, Washington, D. C., a member and promoter of the Bahai movement, the new religion of world-wide brotherhood, was a guest of the Employed Boys' Brotherhood at breakfast Sunday morning. * William L. Offord, recently of Philadelphia, Pa., who is pursuing the legal profession here, addressed an interested group of community boys on "Civics" last Friday night. * F. T. Lane, activities secretary, accompanied the boys of this draft to Camp Grant. About 150 went in the Monday party and 100 on Tuesday. * The Y. M. C. A. Employed Boys' Brotherhood entertained a group of drafted men at the "Y" Tuesday, April 30. The men were en route to Camp Grant and miss their train connection. They were without funds and the Brotherhood unanimously voted to defray their expenses. * Arrivals: Charles S. Gilbert, New York; R. L. La Mar, Louisville, Ky.; Rev. H. Milton Mickens, Salina, Kan.; Rev. L. P. Powell, South Bend, Ind.; D. Samuel Tate, Washington, D. C.; John W. Gaines, Little Rock, Ark.; W. C. Taylor, Brooklyn, N. Y.; F. Burley, Detroit, Mich.; J. C. Anderson, Hammond, Ind.; Sargent Morin, Lima, Ohio; Henry L. Moore, Holly Springs, Miss.; C. E. Cheeks, Cleveland, Ohio; U. V. Stewart, St. Louis, Mo.; Harold Anthony, Boston, Mass.; Walter Rhodes, Des Moines, Iowa; Phillip McGuire, Des Moines, Iowa; Dewitt Hunter, Des Moines, Iowa, and Ted Parker, Des Moines, Iowa.