

CLUBS AND FRATERNAL

At Douglass center Sunday, July 14, at 4 p. m. the Chicago University society meets for the installation of officers and musical program. Last Sunday the address by Dr. Zia Bagdadi on "Universal Religion" was well received.

The Girls' Cheerful circle of the Urban league gave their benefit, "The Wigwam of We-no-nah," to an appreciative audience at Douglass center last Tuesday evening. The president, Mrs. Mary Smith, has provided for them classes in shorthand and music.

The Christian Workers' union gave a literary and musical program at Douglass center last Thursday with good results.

Ited Cross auxillary No. 411, with headquarters at Douglass center will be relieved from knitting during the summer months and devote their time to relief work for foreign nations.

The Royal Arts Social club held its annual picnic at Washington Park July 4, prior to its disbanding for the summer. The picnic was largely attended.

The Eureka Fine Arts club met at the residence of Mrs. Elsie Norris, 3558 La Salle street. Will meet next with Mrs. Cotton, 17 East Thirty-seventh place, July 11.

The Y. M. L. I. will meet this week with Mrs. Katie Mason, hostess, 4321 Langley avenue, Thursday, July 11.

The Mystic Social club No. 1 met at the residence of Mrs. Osbron, 5147 Wabash avenue, Thursday, June 27. Next meeting Thursday, July 11.

The Modern Priscilla club met Monday afternoon, July 8, with Mrs. Ethel Faulkner, 5444 S. Dearborn street. An interesting meeting was held and a delightful luncheon was served. All members were present. Next meeting Thursday afternoon, July 18, with Mrs. Crawford, 4664 State street.

The Negro Fellowship League's program will be arranged by Mr. Clark at its reading rooms, 3005 S. State street. Last Sunday the program was in charge of J. E. Hughes. The following numbers were rendered: A reading from Dunbar by Mrs. Ethel Hardy; an appreciation of Paul Laurence Dunbar by Mr. Harding; piano solo by Mrs. Lillian Daniels; a select reading from Dunbar by Mr. Jones. The Race review was given by H. B. Holden.

The Virginia Society will meet July 17 at 3638 S. State street, at which time arrangements for their anniversary will be made and Mrs. Ora Brown Stokes, Richmond, Va., and M. T. Bailey will speak, the latter having covered 3,000 miles in the interest of the Milton Mercantile Agency.

The Ideal Woman's Club was entertained by Mrs. Jessie Harris, 3508 Calumet avenue, on July 5. This club is doing its bit in purchasing war stamps. Next meeting with Mrs. Watson, July 12, on Loomis boulevard.

The Elite Social club celebrated July 4th with an outing at Douglas Park, Hammond, Ind.

The Gaudcamas club met with Mrs. E. Hardin, 4042 Wabash avenue, July 8. Inmates of the Old Folks' Home were given twenty-five pounds of rice and sugar July 4. The next meeting with Mrs. C. Johnson, 4100 Lake Park avenue.