

THE BUCKEYE STATE

By Alexander O. Taylor
Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Misses Ella and Elizabeth Hamer and niece, Miss Marion Finch, Detroit, Mich., were guests of Mrs. Elizabeth Black Thursday. * The competitive drill given at St. Paul's A. M. E. Zion Church between Royal Calantha Drill Corps No. 1 and Star Calantha Drill Corps No. 3 was won by the latter with Captain G. Saunders Little, Lieutenants Marie Harris and Lulu Mead Brown and Sergeants Andrews and Rena Tuck in command. * Alta Cousins returned recently from a trip to his home in his auto. * Miss Estelle Gainer, delegate from St. James' A. M. E. Church to the Sunday-school convention at Youngstown, was unable to return with the rest of the delegates on account of illness. * J. D. Ramsey, Scovill avenue agent of the Defender, visited Pittsburg recently. * J. J. Wright, who left last week for Camp Grant, was presented with a beautiful token of esteem before his departure by the two Phillis Wheatley clubs, the L. U. B. P.'s and the P. W. A. auxiliary. * Slaughter Bros. report the following deaths: Minah Johnson, 20, 2510 E. 35th street, shipped to Tusculum, Ala.; Martha Davis, 2515 E. 33rd street, shot to death by her husband, Thomas Davis. * Miss Gray, Findlay, Ohio, is still the guest of Mr. Howard Slaughter, E. 43rd street. * The Young Men's Auxiliary held their last meeting to discuss a Phillis Wheatley Day program. Miss Emma Williams is making a splendid showing as manager of the boarding department of the Phillis Wheatley Association. Miss Jane E. Hunter, the energetic general secretary, says over $7,000 is being expended in the renovation of the beautiful home at the corner of E. 40th street and Central avenue. The grand opening will be held early in September. Miss Irene Watkins, a resident of the association, and W. W. Durung were married recently. The Tuskegee Club held an interesting meeting in the association rooms, at which Rev. Irving H. Merchant was the speaker, Sunday week. Members of the Y. M. Auxiliary assisted on the program. * Miss Florence Eaton, E. 40th street, has returned after a three weeks' visit in Buffalo, N. Y. * The Literary Art Society, a reading club, was organized at the P. W. A. with the following named officers: Mr. Brooks, chairman; Miss Brooks, vice chairman; Miss Josephine Wooten, secretary; Alfred Stewart, assistant secretary, and Miss Mattie Wheeler, treasurer. * Mrs. Carrie Smith, E. 49th street, left Sunday for Detroit to reside permanently. * Eugene F. Cheeks, hustling agent of the Defender, has purchased Ben Baird's printing shop at 3312 Central avenue and will continue cut rate printing. Mr. Cheeks is seeking a location near E. 40th street. Mr. Cheeks is also a stockholder in the Consolidated Cash Grocery, recently opened on Central avenue. * Sunday, Aug. 4, at Mt. Zion Congregational Church, the Cleveland Association of Colored Men will hold installation services. An attractive program will be rendered under the direction of Robert B. Hodges, Councilman Thomas W. Fleming and J. W. Willis, program committee. Members of the N. A. A. C. P., the Negro Welfare Association, the Council of Colored Women's Clubs and other local organizations are especially requested to be present. * Mr. Minnie, Lockland, Ohio, was guest of Miss Ethel Richardson, 2214 E. 49th street, en route from the K. of P. convention in Lorain last week. Mrs. Mary L. Santee and daughter, Miss Nannie B., left Tuesday for Chicago to attend the convention of Mrs. C. J. Walker agents. * Miss Virginia Robinson was the honor guest at the dinner party given Friday evening by Miss Bertha J. Blue. Miss Robinson is en route to Des Moines, Iowa, to take up "Hostess House" work under the Y. W. C. A. She has been engaged in social work in Newark, N. J., the past three years. * The Clover Leaf Crochet Club meets at the home of Mrs. Harvey Wallace, E. 59th street. * Mr. and Mrs. W. Hassell, Alliance, Ohio, are preparing to make Cleveland their home. * Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson and children motored from Alliance last week and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allen, E. 29th street. Mr. Jackson spent a day at the K. of P. convention in Lorain. * Miss Jane E. Hunter entertained at luncheon Monday in honor of Miss Hattie L. Duckett, her guest from Greenville, S. C., and Miss Virginia Robinson, Camp Upton, L. I. Mrs. Mamie Hawkins entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Miss Duckett. * Dionysius Court of Calantha, No. 61, had as their delegate to the grand lodge meet in Lorain Mrs. Theodore Taylor, past worthy counselor. * Rev. Peravia O'Connell, pastor of Cory M. E. Church, spoke on President Wilson's proclamation on lynching Sunday evening at the church. As usual he stirred and thrilled the immense audience with his oratory as he discussed what he termed the "second Emancipation Proclamation."

Mrs. George Sampson Dies
Mrs. George W. Sampson, for fifty years a resident at the old Sampson homestead on E. 30th street, died last week Tuesday at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Dale, on E. 40th street, after several months' illness. Her death was a shock to the entire community, as she was esteemed by all who knew her. A husband, daughter, Mrs. Hattie Dale; two sons, Prof. George Sampson, principal of the high school in Jackson, Ala., and Fred Sampson of this city; a sister, Mrs. Susie Kemp of Bowling Green, Ohio, are left to mourn her demise. The funeral was held Friday afternoon at Mt. Zion Congregational Church, of which she and Mr. Sampson were among the founders, Rev. Irving Keith Merchant, pastor, officiating. James A. Rogers had charge of the funeral. The family has the sympathy of the Defender. * An example of democracy applied was witnessed in the Cleveland School of Education this summer. No distinction because of color was made in the case of many little Race children who were in the demonstration classes. At the closing session a little Race boy represented America extending a helping hand to the allies. * Among our teachers attending the summer Normal College were Mesdames Madeline Lightfoot, Florence Smith, Charles Smith, Miranda Cheeks, Estelle Ballard, Fannie Suggs, Ida Cash, Cousins, Harriet Price, Green, Brown, Misses Nina Chaffin, Mabel Early, Olive Hale, Willa Shook, Eleanor Alexander, Bertha Sutton, Cora Mean, Wilberetta Barnaby, Mottley, Thomas, Ella, Boyd and Bertha J. Blue. * S. E. Woods, candidate for state representative at the Republican primaries, Aug. 13, has been endorsed by a committee of citizens representing good government and clean politics. * S. E. Mason, 3435 E. 128th street, had as guest last week Floyd Chavis, Brooklyn, N. Y. * Dr. and Mrs. Leroy Bundy returned from their eastern tour last week. Dr. Bundy's mother, Mrs. Eliza Bundy, and little niece, Elsie Cox, spent last week in Detroit. * William Patterson, E. 48th street, one of Cleveland's pioneer citizens, father of Mesdames Katie Dodge and Agnes Harris, is critically ill again. His other daughter, Mrs. Willa Smith, was summoned from Canton. * The Attucks Business Co. of the East End held a picnic and barbecue at Waller's Grove on the West Side. * William Robinson, cousin of Mrs. Beattie Foster Oglesby, has been transferred from Camp Grant to Camp Humphrey, Va. * Guests at Moss' Central Hotel: J. H. Partier and A. M. Young, Zanesville, en route to Lorain to the Pythian Grand Lodge; Charles H. Bray, Bellefontaine, Ohio; Ernest

Mason, Columbus; Misses Sarah Mulder and Hattie Richards, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Pittsburg; Richard Abbott, Kansas City, Mo., touring in his car; W. E. Clark, Marion, Ark.; Frank Moss, Kalamazoo, Mich.; Sidney J. Robinson, Leroy, N. Y.; L. Holt, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Greene, Zanesville, Ohio; J. H. Jasper, Toledo; James Williams, Wooster, O.; C. G. Watkins, Arthur Bibb and Robert Williams, Sandwich, Ont., discharged Canadian soldiers. * Mrs. Hal Jackson, distributing agent of Mrs. C. J. Walker, left for Chicago to attend the agents' convention. * Miss Maggie Cook bookkeeper for the Mrs. C. J. Walker Mfg. Co., Indianapolis, Ind., now attending the Chicago convention, will spend her vacation here as guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook, and sister, Miss Bessie Cook, E. 29th street.

Woods Looks Like a Winner
At the big picnic given at Luna Park Saturday by the League of Republican Clubs of Cuyahoga County much comment was passed on S. E. Woods as a winner at the primaries Aug. 13 for state representative. Out of six drawings S. E. Woods won 48 tickets on the $500 Liberty Bond to be given out Republican Day, Aug. 31, by the Western Reserve Republican Club. * J. W. Willis & Co. report the following deaths: James Edwards, 8, son of Reuben and Jessie Mason Edwards, at City Hospital; Arnold Pelton, 2546 E. 31st street, son of Thos. and Addie Pelton; Munice Johnson, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Cravin, 2313 E. 28th street; James Thomas Wade, 1 year, son of Simon and Edith Wade, 2833 E. 40th street. * Councilman Thomas Fleming will be a candidate for grand district ruler at the Elks' Grand Lodge meeting at Baltimore this month. Delegates from Cuyahoga Lodge say they expect to "bring home the bacon." * Sergeant Robert Derrick, Camp Sherman, visited his mother, Mrs. H. P. Derrick, and sister, Mrs. Madeline West, Arthur avenue, the past week. * Visitors to the K. of P. Grand Lodge meeting at Lorain last week were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. Major Robinson, Mrs. Pauline West, Mrs. Reba Doctor Taylor, Mrs. Rena Tuck and W. H. Weaver. The delegates were H. W. Burrell, J. C. Hudson, James A. Rogers, Morris Butler, from Climax Lodge; Major R. N. Dillard, W. J. Howland, C. S. Royal, C. J. Ramsey and A. Allen from Western Reserve Lodge, and W. L. F. Milligan, Albert Bernard, W. H. Clark, George Buchanan and J. Jones from Edwin Cowles Lodge. Attorney A. H. Martin and James A. Rogers took the past chancellor's degree. Delegates from Hermione Court of Calantha, No. 41: Mesdames Hattie Justice, Ella Moore, Mary Evans and Mamie Rose, from Richmond Court, No. 10: Miss Ethel Richardson and Mrs. Ada Jackson; Dionysius Court, No. 61, Mrs. Theo. Taylor. Other delegates reported by J. W. Willis & Co.: Flora Carver, 31, daughter of Walter and Nipsey Carver, 2165 E. 37th street, shipped to Sanford, N. C.; Infant Newman, baby of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Newman, 3124 Cedar avenue; Hiram R. Gilliam, 48, at City Hospital, brother of Rev. Gilliam, Columbus, Ohio, residence 2209 E. 46th street. * S. E. Woods announces in his political platform that the question of high rents, brokerage, and loan values on real estate should be adjusted by law, and that he will try to pass such a law if elected to the legislature. * The Cleveland Association of Colored Men expects thousands of visitors at its annual Emancipation celebration as usual at Luna Park next Monday. The speaker of the day will be Hon. Wilbur King, Columbus, assisted by Congressman H. I. Emerson and Ex-Governor Frank B. Willis. The annual tag day effort of the Phillis Wheatley Association and the Cleveland Home for Aged Colored People will be held at the park. * Our candidates for state representative at the Republican primaries are Attorney Harry E. Davis; S. E. Woods, real estate dealer; Welcome T. Blue, real estate dealer; B. U. McGinnis, real estate dealer, and Peter Blount. All are splendid candidates and worthy of our most serious consideration at the polls. Dallas Cooper is the Democratic candidate. * Mrs. Narcissa Hunter, formerly of Cleveland, but now living in Chicago, wishes her many Cleveland friends to know that she was not the Mrs. Hunter who was so brutally murdered by a landlady because she would not associate with her and her roomers several weeks ago. * Mrs. Lela Walker Bryan and Dr. Grace Kimbrough, Philadelphia, Pa., were guests of Mrs. H. E. Murrell, 2271 E. 48th street, last week. Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll entertained delightfully in their honor Monday evening. * Frank Perkins spent his vacation in Romulus, Mich., visiting his mother and sisters. He also visited Ypsilanti and Detroit. * Miss Florence Thomas, who is engaged in cantonment work at Camp Upton, was expected in the city Monday to be guest of her mother, Mrs. Lee Thomas, and sisters. * Mrs. William Webster was removed from Dairymale hospital Sunday to her home greatly improved. * William Timbers, Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Lemon, E. 85th street. * Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Moore, Alliance, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Blue, E. 89th street. * Miss Elizabeth Carter, teacher in the New Bedford, Mass., schools and ex-president of the National Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, is expected here as guest of Mrs. L. J. Price en route from the annual meet in Denver. * A large number attended the N. A. A. C. P. meeting in Akron. * The Young Men's Sedulous Club entertained the following drafted members Saturday evening in true "sedulous" style with a stag and smoker at the home of G. L. Stokes, 2310 E. 43rd street: P. L. Williams, A. M. Stokes and W. H. Shand, who have been called to entrain early this month.

Tuesday evening, July 16, Cleveland Camp, No. 3, of the American Woodmen, was organized in the banquet room of the Geraldine, 2212 East Fortieth street, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. William Owens. Fully 100 people attended and were obligated into the secrets of Woodcraft by Supervising Deputy C. C. Cade. The Geraldine was decorated in the national colors and the outside lighted, all of which helped to make this a memorable epoch in the life of Cleveland. Double honors come to the Geraldine for being the birthplace of Woodcraft in Ohio. Mrs. Owens, who is the daughter of the late Bishop Beebe, should be commended for giving to Cleveland such a splendid place as the Geraldine.

Youngstown, Ohio, Aug. 2.—E. O. J. held a large meeting in their hall Tuesday. Ten new members were added to the membership roll. The E. O. J. is growing rapidly. Economy is their motto. * Rev. Phillips of the Tabernacle church preached Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for Rev. Monroe, East Youngtown. * R. H. Ford, Chicago Defender correspondent, after being confined for a week is up and on his feet again. * Rev. C. E. Ball was in Cleveland the first part of the week attending the district A. M. E. church association convention. * Miss Ethel Timbers and Mr. Jeffreys returned from the Sunday school convention which was held in Columbus. * Mrs. Chas. T. Thornton and Mrs. V. C. Jones spent Friday in Sharon, Pa., visiting their many friends. * Rev. J. D. Mead of A. M. E. Z. church of Dayton, is attending the district conference in Cleveland. * The Odd Fellows had their regular meeting Friday evening and continue to add new members to their lodge. * C. Thornton, 730 W. Arlington street, is able to be out again after several weeks of sickness. * C. V. Jones left for Cleveland Monday to join his daughter Miss Rosa Jones. * Rev. O. W. Harper, Third Baptist church; Rev. C. E. Ball, St. Mary Zion church; H. G. Emerson, the undertaker; R. H. Ford, the real estate man; C. W. Wright and Mr. Howard leave Sunday night for Columbus, Ohio as U. S. government supervisor of Negro Economy of Labor and Housing conditions of Negroes of Mahony Valley, having been appointed by Hon. Geo. E. Haynes, U. S. supervisor general. Delegates from every county in the state will convene at the capital Monday, Aug. 5, and will meet in the senate chambers at 10:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. to discuss ways and means to better the Race, labor and housing conditions among our people. * Monday evening Mrs. H. Porter of W. Myrtle avenue will give a mask party in honor of his sister, Miss Ida B. Mangrove of Huntington, W. Va. * On last Friday members of the B. Y. P. U. of Third Baptist church in a body attended the Jerusalem church. Officers were installed by the pastor, J. P. Monroe after which a solo was rendered by Mrs. O. L. Morris. * Wednesday afternoon the religious committee of the C. C. C. met in the parlor and plans were arranged for an entertainment August 23rd at the Third Baptist church. * Mrs. Laura Williams, en route from Cleveland, spent several days in our city as the guest of Miss Ella Frazer, also Mrs. Susie Lee of Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting Miss Frazer, the matron of the C. C. C. * Miss Bessie Lewis and Pearl Handels, a prominent attorney of Cleveland, are visiting the C. C. C. * Mrs. Laura Brown of Pittsburg, Pa., connected with the U. S. Government Negro Bureau, will speak at the Zion church, Mahony avenue, Sunday, Aug. 4, at 3 p. m. in honor of Youngstown's big patriotic demonstration. * Wednesday evening the So-Sos gave a dance in Mill Creek Park. They had a large attendance and it was a success. * R. H. Ford received a message from Hon. Roscoe Conkling Simmons to go ahead with the arrangement for the big patriotic demonstration, Aug. 29. That he will be here to speak that afternoon. The committee is assured that Gov. Cox and Maj. Crewer and many other prominent speakers will be on the platform with Dr. Roscoe C. Simmons. * Mrs. and Mrs. A. Reid, 428 Chicago avenue, arrived Thursday morning and at night a reception was given at their home in their honor. * Friday a picnic was given at the home of Mrs. C. Murray, Sharon Lane, Stop 16. * The Chrysanthemum Club had quite an enjoyable time Friday evening. * Miss Louise Miller entertained a few friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. Willard, W. Myrtle avenue, in honor of Miss Ida Mengreene. * Mrs. Emy gave a surprise party in honor of her husband. * Mrs. H. Irwin gave a dinner last Tuesday evening. Those present were Mrs. A. Parson, Mrs. Semelius, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. A. Jones, Mrs. Rankins and many others. * Mrs. Arizona Parson made a trip to Cleveland this week on business. * Rufus Richards and Mr. Hawkins of Cleveland are spending the week end here. * Peter Myers of Toledo, Ohio, is a guest here. * Miss Mae Forester and Miss R. Johnson and Miss M. Furman of Cleveland are visiting friends here. * Miss Mae Brown, formerly of Buffalo, left for Cleveland this week to visit friends and relatives.

Sektan, Ohio, Aug. 2.—The Defender is on sale each Saturday at Woodson & Johnson's cigar store. * F. Young, the popular tonorial artist, was in the city on business last week. Mr. Young has from Cairo, Ill., and has charge of Aaron Johnson's tonorial parlors. * Samuel Elbert Pillow, Jr., 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Pillow, proprietors of the Cash Grocery, is the youngest member of the R. A. Society. Her has a neat bank account and is well versed in the art of business. * Clarence Nailon, Jr., 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Nailon, shows an unusual amount of eagerness for learning how to read. He is much interested in knowing each day about the Kaiser and the Colored soldiers over there. He is noted for singing popular and patriotic airs. * Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Harmon and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graves of Walnut Hill, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Graves Sunday. * Ethel Graves enjoyed a pleasant birthday party last week. Covers were laid for twenty guests. * Charles and Walter Murphy are spending two weeks with their aunt, Mrs. Casper Utz of Walnut Hill. * William Delaney was taken to the hospital Friday to undergo treatment. * Rev. Benjamin Scott of Antioch church, Cincinnati, delivered the rally sermon at Delhi annual basket meeting Sunday. The attendance was over three hundred. * Benjamin Foster and family entertained guests from Springfield and Cincinnati Sunday. * Mr. Dudley of Kentucky is the guest of relatives. * Rev. S. E. Hoard delivered an excellent sermon Sunday morning and evening. * Communion services Sunday evening. * Miss Lulu M. Bowens has a wonderful ability for music. She is organist at the Baptist church. * Miss Geneva Boyer is president of the younger set Lily of the Valley club; she is having success. * Those studying music are: Miss Una Delaney, Miss Nannie Rainey, Miss Zenobia Foster, Lacey Delaney, and James Hawkins. All are reported making progress. A rehearsal is being arranged. * Mrs. B. Barkley was operated on Wednesday at the City Hospital. * The friends of Miss Marie Glenn, Cleveland, Ohio, were surprised to learn of her death at the City Hospital, where she had been an inmate for several weeks. The funeral was held Saturday at 2 p. m., from the M. E. church. Rev. Burt Dudley and Father Lemuel Dudley officiated. * Miss Fannie Hatley and daughter, Mary E. Johnson of Gary, Ind., are guests of friends for several weeks. * James Hardy of Laurenceburg, Ind., was the guest of friends Saturday evening.

Elyria, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Miss Cordella Greenfield of Shepardstown, W. Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Virgie Perkins of 115 Pine street. * Mrs. Frank Robinson returned home after a two weeks' visit with her mother and friends in Shepardstown. * Mrs. Weathers of Fuller street is improving, after a two months' illness, at the home of her son, Rev. Crawford. * Mrs. Liza Townsend, 485 Huron street, has been suffering with a very bad eye for the last two months. * Mr. and Mrs. Huston, 7 Cedar street, are the proud parents of a daughter, born July 22, named Dorothy. * Miss Edith White, 7 Shire street, would like to locate her brother, Robert White, White Station, Ky., formerly of Brassfield, Ky. * Rev. Archie Allen and Mr. Howland were the dinner guests of Misses Eva and Willie Davison. * Lima and Geraldine Ferguson of Lorain were the guests of their aunt, Mrs. Ella Reynolds. * Mrs. Hazel Davison Ferguson, arrived home from New York City Tuesday. * Misses Nancy Smith, Laura Ellis, Willie and Eva Darrion, Geneva Devenshire and Hazel Ferguson attended the K. P. dance in Lorain Thursday. * Mr. and Mrs. Will Jones of Stop 6, are the proud parents of a little daughter. * Mrs. James Robinson had as her guest last week Mrs. Nellie Allen of Springfield, Ohio, and Miss Jessie Almers, Detroit, Mich. * Fred Cook is able to be out again. * Miss Mary Brown and Miss Howard, Charlie and Clinton Brown of Lisbon returned home after a few days' visit here with relatives. * Mrs. Taylor of Fuller street is improving. She was run down by a motorcycle and badly bruised. * Mrs. Gallagher of 14th street has as her guest Mrs. Lola Davis, Cincinnati, Ohio. * Mrs. Bell Mechanic street, has a badly sprained ankle. * The Sunday guests of Miss Minnie Ford of Middle avenue were Miss Washington of Cleveland, Ohio, and her aunt of Atlanta, Ga.

Painesville, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Mrs. Hattie Briggs and two daughters, James town, N. Y., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brooks. * The social given at the home of Mrs. Harriet Martin Wednesday for the benefit of the Union Congregational church was a success. * Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Taylor entertained Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Mildred Wright of Monongahela, Pa. * A bathing picnic was given at Fairport beach Friday in honor of the next draftees. Bathing and boating were the main features of the evening. Those who attended from out of town were Chas. George, Geneva; Mrs. Olive Paine, Wellsville, Ohio, and Mrs. Mildred Wright, Monongahela, Pa. A very enjoyable time was had. * Messrs. Wallace Johnson and Clair Gardner, Ashtabula, visited Henry Bethel and Joseph Johnson recently. * Mrs. Mildred Wright returned home Saturday to Monongahela, Pa. * Masters Lorenzo and Carlton Gordon are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Watson in Geneva. * Miss Mary Bethel and Mrs. Mildred Wright spent Friday in Cleveland. * The following are week-end guests at Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Snowden's: Mrs. Olive Payne, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Mattie Wilson and son Ralph of Wellsville and Mr. and Mrs. John Ballard, Cleveland. * John Eledge, Cleveland, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eledge, and daughter Roberta, who is spending the summer with her grandparents. * The rally for the New Union Congregational church Sunday was a success. * Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Taylor have moved to 127 Sterling avenue. * The Ladies' Social Club met with Mrs. Harriet Martin Thursday afternoon. * Miss Anna Bethel and Miss Theresa Bolivar returned to Canton after a visit at the Bethel home. * James Morris spent Sunday in Canton.

Nowark, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Thomas B. Kulano, A. R. of Wilberforce University, lectured at the First Church of Christ Wednesday evening. * Rev. W. H. Coleman spent Sunday the guest of Rev. Hicks, preached able sermons. * Misses Etta Shackelford and Beulah Rossin have returned from Youngstown, where they attended the N. O. S. S. Institute. * Wm. Chat spent Sunday with his mother on 10th street. * Edward David Todd died Saturday forenoon. Funeral services at Trinity A. M. E. church Monday at 2 p. m. * E. M. White and wife, Chester White, Mr. Howard and Miss Howard passed through here yesterday en route for Columbus. * The entertainment given by Co. M., U. R., at Lieut. H. L. Coleman's was a success. * Call 3446 for the Defender, 8 W. Church street. * Mrs. George Bennett entertained Tuesday evening at dinner Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Jasper, Wm. Jackson and Miss Georgia Monday and Miss Viola Freeman.

Springfield, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Miss Lavender Lamb of New Vienna is the guest of Mrs. Charles Guy of the Highlands. * Mrs. Barrett of Youngstown, Mrs. Alexander of Toledo, and Mrs. Arnold and daughter of Plaquia were last week's guests of Mrs. Cecilia Craft. * Miss Annette Hill of Gallipolis is the guest of Miss Jennie Henry. * Mrs. Charles Mitchell has returned to her home at Columbus after a two weeks' visit with Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Peteford. * Mrs. Buster, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Rudd, has returned to her home at Kansas City. * Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Peteford and Mrs. Charles Hardin left Monday for Lorain to attend the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias. * Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Kemp, Montreal, Canada, who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Peteford, left Thursday for Dayton to spend a few days with Mr. Kemp's brother, Henry Kemp. * Wesley White, William Glover, Sully James and Dr. S. S. Jordan left Monday for Lorain as delegates to the grand lodge of Knights of Pythias, which convenes there. * Mrs. John Burns, Mrs. John Horton and Mrs. Sanford Crosswhite left Monday for Lorain to attend the Pythian Grand Lodge. * Stanley C. Jones, Cleveland, was the last week's guest of his mother, Mrs. Lemon Jones, West Clark street. * The 6-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kemp of 901 West Liberty street died July 20. * Mrs. Frank Bayless, who has been seriously ill at her home on Fair street, is improving nicely. * Mrs. Mammie Wallace has returned to her home in Chicago after spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Walter Price. * Mrs. Julia Holmes of Columbus is the guest of Mrs. Edward Butler. * Mrs. Henrietta Carpenter underwent a second operation at the City Hospital Monday by having her foot cut off. She is getting along nicely. Her daughters, Mrs. Edith Bailey of Cleveland and Mrs. Eva Williams of Youngstown were called home by the serious illness of their mother. * Bishop C. H. Phillips of Nashville, Tenn., was last week's guest of Mr. and Mrs. Denis Walker.

Geneva, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Henry Bolden and L. R. Williams were Cleveland visitors Saturday. * Mrs. Mattie Wilson and son, Mrs. Olive Payne and Mrs. Margaret Lewis of Wellsville, Ohio, and Mrs. Estelle Ballard of Cleveland visited Miss Olla Louden, who is stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Williams. * Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins of Unionville visited friends here Thursday. * Mrs. Lucia Gordon and children were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Watson. * Walter Croons spent Saturday and Sunday in Jefferson, Ohio. * Master Russell Williams is spending a few days in Painesville.

Springfield, Ohio, Aug. 2.—Miss Lavender Lamb of New Vienna is the Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.