

THE BUCKEYE STATE

By Alexander O. Taylor

Cleveland, Ohio, June 20.—Mrs. C. M. Robinson-Manley, national P. M. N. G. of Household of Ruth of the G. U. O. of Odd Fellows of the World, spent a delightful week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Jackson, 2744 East 53d street. She left on the 10th for Youngstown, Ohio, on business. * Mrs. Susan Cross and Alfred Boyd were married last week and are living at 2321 East 36th street. * Miss Helen Wright, school teacher, leaves for Chicago Sunday to spend the summer with her parents. * Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright are expected in the city this week to accompany her. * Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dennis and Mr. and Mrs. David Quinn are among the latest Clevelanders to purchase attractive autos. * Miss Blanche Brewer's Sunday school class of young misses of the Christian Alliance on East 39th street gave her a very pleasant birthday surprise party last week Wednesday evening. The members of the class presented Misses Martha Berry, Lila Miller, Sadie Wilkerson, Verona Stewart, Margaret Berry, Gertrude Dean, Helen Pegram, Wella Smith, Edna Robinson, Lillian Robinson, Naomi Owens and Rose Billings. * Harry L. Kersey was called to Kalamazoo, Mich., last week by the illness of his aunt, Mrs. Lou Bolden. * The Mothers' Club of St. John Church held a pleasant meeting at Mrs. Lee's on East 43d street. The program by the children was interesting, Mrs. Weaver having charge. * The Harmony Trio sang for the engineers (white) on their C. & B. excursion to Lorain last week. * A great hit. They have contracted with the Colt Lyceum Bureau (white) for the fall and winter season, giving recitals in Boston, Canada and other points. The members of the trio are Miss Gladys Wells, Mrs. Olive Wells Ball and Mrs. Pearl Cleago. * Mrs. Tom Queen, East 43d street, is still very sick. * Oliver Everett, one of S. Buckner's hustling Defender sellers, is very ill with pneumonia at his home, 3644 Scoville avenue. * No hope for his early recovery. * It is rumored that Eddie Chaffin, recently returned from overseas, is to marry soon a fine young lady from the Blue Grass state. * Miss Irene Dean, the hair culturist, has removed to 6337 Cedar avenue. Her former location on Central avenue will be used as the entrance to the Phyllis Wheatley annex, adjacent to the main building. * Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Webster motored to Macedonia Sunday to visit their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Ramsey and Mrs. Ella Guy. Mrs. Mary Taylor, mother of the Defender's general agent, a lifelong friend of Mrs. Guy, accompanied them. * The Myrtlene class of St. John's Sunday school, Mrs. Margaret Ingram teacher, has elected the following officers: Mrs. Madeline Lightfoot, president; Miss Myrtle Johnson, secretary, and Miss Gertrude Byrd, treasurer. * Mrs. Earl Corbin, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary Frances Corbin, is visiting her parents in Paris, Ky. * Mrs. James Ada Brown of Zanesville, Ohio, is visiting Mrs. Lee Thomas and daughter, Miss Ada Brown, who is still ill. * Bailey T. Branham, brother of J. E. Branham, 4219 Central avenue, is in Detroit for a few days' visit. * O. C. Collins, the popular barytone of the Parker Players, of Columbus, Ohio, spent Sunday with his friends here. * Dr. and Mrs. Whitehead, Miss Bertha J. Blue and Dr. Lawrence were among the many who entertained for Rev. S. A. Lucas, pastor of St. Mark's, L. M. E. Church, Atlanta, Ga., during his recent visit here. He was guest of his sister, Mrs. Ed Gates, East 104d street. * The Mothers' Club of St. John's Church are planning an outing at Wade Park for the babies, mothers and fathers and others who wish to attend, on July 9. * A large number of the members of the Caterers' Association are lot owners at beautiful Idlewild and are planning visiting the resort during July and August. The association is also planning the erection of a clubhouse at this popular and unparalleled summer resort. * Frank J. Perkins was here from Detroit Sunday as guest of his wife, Mrs. Marie T. Perkins. * Prof. Thomas P. J. is teacher of music in the Kansas City, Kan., public schools. He is the guest of his father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blue, E. 90th street. His wife, Mrs. Mabel Blue Reynolds, is expected in the city this week. * S. E. Woods, real estate dealer, reports these sales through his agency recently: To Mr. and Mrs. Is Hurd, attractive eight-room residence at 2848 East 90th street; to E. E. Murrell and Howard H. Murrell, 2271 East 43d street, property 50x150 feet, facing on Central avenue, near 55th street, where they are to establish up to date, undertaking parlors, chapel, garage, morgue, etc.; to Lieutenant J. J. Green, recently from overseas with 367th Infantry, a four suite apartment on Central avenue. Mrs. Green is expected from Washington, D. C., to join her husband this week.

Checks Purchases Print Shop

Eugene P. Cheeks, popular agent of the Defender, has purchased the up to date print shop of W. H. Proudly (white) at 315 Superior building, with electric power press, etc. He is undecided as to whether he will retain the one at 3007 Scoville avenue or not, but he says that he intends to turn out only modern work at his new plant. * Mrs. Richard Smith, East 90th street, corner Cedar avenue reports her safe arrival in Atlantic City. Mrs. Smith suffered a nervous breakdown precipitated by the loss of their baby. Her sisters accompanied her. * Miss Bertha

J. Blue entertained for Mrs. Bessie Early Keeler of Denver, Colo., who was guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Keeler. * The Idlewild Outing Club, composed of some of our progressive young men, are arranging to give a dance June 24 at Sojacks Hall, the proceeds to go toward building their Idlewild club-house. The young people of Mount Zion Congregational Church cordially invite the young people's societies of the different churches of the city to attend their special evening service June 29, 8 o'clock. * Mr. and Mrs. M. E. A. Author, general agents of the Idlewild Resort Company, 3965 Central avenue, had as their delightful guest last week Mrs. Moral (Bessie Early) Keelan of Denver, Colo. Mrs. Keelan and Mr. Author were school chums in California. Mrs. Keelan, who lost her mother in February, has been in the middle west the past three months recuperating and is en route to New York City. Being an alumnus of Oberlin College, she spent several days in Oberlin visiting her alma mater. Mrs. Keelan is an accomplished pianist and conversationalist and made many friends while in the city. * W. W. Williams, Thomas W. Fleming, Harry L. Kersey and J. W. Turk are the delegates elected to the Elks grand lodge in August. E. W. Sellers has been elected secretary of Cuyahoga lodge No. 95 of this city. Frank Miller having resigned. * Judge Pierre White was the special speaker at the meeting of the Attacks Republican Club last week Friday evening. * C. A. L. Dickson is the progressive secretary of local 550 of musicians, affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. He is located at 3965 Central avenue, the headquarters of the Idlewild Resort Company and the Chicago Defender. * Mr. and Mrs. Alexander O. Taylor, East 103d street, gave a dinner and theater party for Mrs. Bessie Keelan and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. A. Author last week. * Mrs. Ida Gray Chees, school teacher, has secured a divorce from Elmer Chees and the restoration of her maiden name.

Lake Excursion for N. A. C. P.

To assist in the entertainment of the members and guests of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People conference in this city June 21-29 inclusive the American Woodmen will conduct an outing for the delegates up Lake Erie to Pitt in Bay. The steamer, from Cleveland, the steamer, secured for the occasion is the City of Erie, one of the finest on the Great Lakes. For information call Bell phone Rosedale 305 or address 2403 East 40th street, suite 1. * An excellent concert was given at St. James' A. M. E. church Thursday evening for the building fund. The participants were Mrs. Olive Wells Ball, contralto; Harry T. Ford, known to all as the peerless cornet and bugle imitator; Mrs. Lauretta Harris Thompson and George Howard Fields, pianists; Norman Harris, bass, and Miss Hallie Jackson, the popular baby-tones. * Detective Arthur McFarland was in Pittsburgh last week looking for bolshevik bombers. * Harry T. Ford spent the week-end in Columbus, Ohio. * Mount Zion Congregational baseball team will cross bats with the champion Bureaus of St. John's Sunday school July 4. * Mrs. Joseph L. Pickett announces the engagement of her sister, Miss Victoria Elizabeth Dorian of Houston, Texas, to August Pruitt. They will be married the latter part of June. * The Wistaria Club was most delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. H. T. Eubanks, 1202 Lakeland avenue, Lakewood. Miss Eleanor Alexander led the discussion, the subject being "The N. A. C. P." The next meeting with Mrs. Edward Daw, 2318 East 88th street. * Frank Turner of Mount Vernon, Ohio, was here last week as the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Ferguson, East 43d street, and Dr. George H. Turner, chiropractor. * Miss Daisy Etcherson, clerk of the People's pharmacy, returned from Atlanta, Ga., where her father passed away. She has the sympathy of the Defender. * T. J. Johnson, principal of the Shelby County (Woodstock) Training School, Lucy, Tenn., was in the city the past week with his family. They stopped at the Central Hotel. * Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Lottier, East 90th street, left Saturday for an extended trip to Baltimore, Atlantic City and New York City, stopping at Niagara Falls on their return. Mrs. Lottier was formerly Miss Crella Hamlett. * Reginald Ryan is busy writing his musical comedy to be given by the College Club in the early fall. * The many friends of Albert McFarland are wondering "why" the frequent visits on East 43d street lately? Ask Reginald Ryan. * Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Foster, 2326 East 43d street, have purchased a magnificent home at 8407 White avenue, one of the most exclusive white districts of the city and expect to take possession of the same at once. The home is modern, being surrounded by a beautiful yard which has an up to date garage. Mr. Foster is president and manager of the Foster Ray Cura Company, doing a large and profitable business. Mrs. Foster is a dressmaker and tailor. * E. F. Boyd, undertaker, reports the following deaths: Mrs. Susie Cole, 38, at her residence, 10771 Frank Avenue, funeral at East Mount Zion Baptist Church, Rev. B. K. Smith officiating. Edw. W. Snyder, 60, at St. Luke's Hospital; remains shipped to Pittsburgh, Pa. Mildred Washington, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Wattie Washington, 2706 E. 51st street. William McDowell, 38, 2380 East 39th street; remains shipped to Memphis, Tenn. Baby Johnson, infant of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Johnson, died at the residence, Green Road, South Euclid, Ohio; interment in East Cleveland cemetery.

Twentieth Century Club Entertains

The Twentieth Century Club, composed of some of our most progressive young ladies, gave its subscription party for the benefit of the Welfare Association Wednesday evening, June 11, the success of which surpassed all expectations. The affair was given at the Cleveland Community Center, 2532 East 40th street. Special mention is made of J. W. Willis and Howard Slaughter for donations of chairs; Luther Johnson, dishes; Kirchner, palms, and Roy Smith's Syncope Orchestra for music. About 150 guests were received, among whom were the following: Dr. B. H. Lawrence, Attorney and Mrs. A. H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lentherrman, Mrs. H. E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Louisa Jones and guest, Mrs. Ada Bell Griffin of Worcester, Mass.; Mrs. Wallace Bolden, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Author and guest, Mrs. M. N. Keelan of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. William Swoop, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Jason Trigg, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Washington, Mr. and Mrs. N. Bonaparte, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Scott, Mrs. J. W. Terry, Mrs. T. W. St. Johns, Misses Grace and Ethel McQueen, Cyrene Allen, Cora B. Annis, Madeline Lightfoot, Gertrude Byrd, Frances Kinor, Faustina Trimble, Magdalene Taylor, Mabel West, Dorothy Scott, and Harriet Underwood, Messrs. Geo. Early, T. B. Botts, Emory Blackburn, J. Walter Willis Jr., Leonard Hughes, J. Warner Purdy, J. J. Jackson, T. M. Ford, C. W. Mitchell, John E. Murrell and James Smith. The club wishes to thank all who contributed to the success of the party. Mrs. E. J. Lucas, president, and Mrs. M. P. Case, secretary.

Entertain for Mrs. Moral Keelan

Mr. and Mrs. Marion E. Author gave an elaborate dinner party at the beautiful Royal Inn, 2255 East 55th street, in honor of their guest, Mrs. Moral N. Keelan, last week Thursday evening. Covers were laid for seventeen. The six course dinner was perfect in appointment and service. The main course round table was decorated beautifully and a jazz orchestra furnished delightful music. Dancing was enjoyed in the specially arranged dancing hall between the courses and at the close of the dinner. S. W. Anderson, superintendent of service, deserves unstinted praise for the efficient service rendered the guests. The party included Mrs. Keelan, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. James Gough, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Dennis, Mrs. Albert Wilkerson, Mrs. Sands, Mrs. Edith Woods, Mrs. Alex. O. Taylor, Mrs. Linwood Hogan, Mr. Stubbs of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Author. Among others who entertained for Mrs. Keelan were Mr. and Mrs. Ora Harris of the Grand Central Theater, who gave a delightful auto party; Mr. Stubbs of Chicago, who gave a theater party. Mrs. Keelan left Saturday for Detroit to visit her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Winhorn. * G. W. Sampson Sr., senior deacon in Mt. Zion Congregational Church, has returned from six months' visit with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Sampson, Jacksonville, Fla. * The Masons of Cleveland will hold their annual St. John's day services at Mount Zion Church, East 31st street, near Central, Sunday morning at 10:45. The public is cordially invited to attend. Rev. Irving Keith Merchant, minister.

Perry Jackson Wins Honor Key

Perry B. Jackson graduated last week with the highest honors of Western Reserve University, winning the key to the Phi Beta Kappa chapter. It is said that young Jackson is the first to win this honor since the degree was awarded to Attorney A. H. Martin some years ago. Mr. Jackson graduated from the arts and science department. He also won the $10 prize for making an extemporaneous speech. He is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity. The graduates from Central high school were Miss Dessa Clements, clerk in the People's pharmacy; Miss Naomi Smith, Miss Hazel Hayes, Miss Althea Robinson, Mrs. Norma Minter-Strickland and Mrs. Chauncey. Other graduates were Miss Roberta James from Normal school and Daniel Stewart from the dental department of Western Reserve.

The Royal Inn a Palace

Last week Friday the Cleveland representative visited the Royal Inn, 2255 East 55th street, and was shown through the beautiful place through the courtesy of S. W. Anderson, the superintendent of service. The representative was deeply impressed with the beauty of the surroundings and pronounced it a "Royal Palace." The decorations are most impressive and unsurpassed by any other institution of the kind in the middle west. The personnel of the Royal Inn is J. G. Perkins, chef, recently of Plainfield, N. J.; G. W. Boyer, cook; Miss May Fitzgerald and Miss Georgia Richardson, Chicago, cashiers; Johnston Carter, mixologist; Misses Ethel Harris, May Parks, Sammie Brown, Myrtle Robb, Clara Carter, Blondie Washington, Cora Stinkford, Marie Hill, Alma Lewis, E. M. Ward and Harriet Saunders, waitresses. S. W. Anderson is the efficient superintendent of service, and Joe Jackley assistant superintendent. Joseph Harris is the genial proprietor. * A. E. Wright of Chicago, one of the promoters of the Idlewild Resort Company, visited M. E. Author, Ohio general agent of the company, located jointly with the Defender at 3965 Central avenue, last week.

THE ROYAL INN, RESTAURANT DE LUXE

Welcomes you of the A. E. F. Your heroism and suffering during the war is m. morable. To members and friends of the N. A. A. C. P., annual conference meeting here June 21 to 29, we extend a sincere welcome to the finest restaurant in the middle west. Amusements and popular prices. We are located at a transfer point to all parts of the city. Meet your friends here. All welcome.

THE ROYAL INN RESTAURANT DE LUXE

Popular Prices
2255 East 55th St., Cleveland, Ohio.
JOSEPH HARRIS, Proprietor.
S. W. ANDERSON, Supt. Service.

(Adv.)

St. James' A. M. E. Church Notes

Sunday morning was love feast. The pastor spoke briefly on "Ye Are a Peculiar People." Ten persons were received into full membership. Sunday school at 12:30 was well attended. The Allen League at 7 o'clock and communion services at 8 by the presiding elder, Rev. Bundy. * The W. M. M. S. met with Mrs. Edith Brewster Thursday evening on Montgomery road. * "The Old Maids' Club" given by Group 8 June 19 was an enjoyable and successful affair. Mrs. Anna Preston and Mrs. Anna Ballard, leaders; Mrs. Hattie Logan, directress. * Next Sunday, June 22, Prof. Reynolds of Kansas City will sing at the morning services. There will also be speakers both morning and evening from the N. A. A. C. P. which will be in conference here during the week. * June 29 is rally day for St. James, at which time $2,000 is hoped to be raised for the building fund. We invite the public to assist us in this worthy undertaking.

Canton, Ohio, June 20.—Miss Gladys Adkins has returned to Solo. * Menelik Club met with Mrs. Ida Snipes of 5th street S. W. * Mrs. King of 8th street S. E. has been quite ill. * Mrs. K. W. Summerville has been quite sick with rheumatism. * Menelik Club wishes to thank the friends and members who helped to make the Sunday exercises so pleasing. * We trust that our people will help make the Fourth of July celebration a grand success for our returned soldiers. * Sunday, July 22, will be observed as young people's day, the progressive class having full supervision. An excellent dinner will be served at the church on the corner of 15th and South Market streets. Exercises morning, afternoon and evening. * Mrs. Ida Ambrose of Cleveland is here for a short stay with her daughter, Mrs. K. W. Summerville. * Mrs. Thomas, Stark avenue S. W., entertained Mrs. Will Smith and Miss R. Smith at a delightful dinner Wednesday. * Mrs. Thomas and daughter, Rachel Smith, and Anna Blockson have gone to Cadiz to see a grandson and nephew who has just returned from France. * Thelma Hall reports a pleasant visit to the Wilberforce commencement. * Watch for further notice of the K. of P. picnic to be held soon. * Sunday school picnic July 10. * Helen Smith of Massillon is visiting Catharine Summerville for a week. * Mrs. Henry Grant of Ravenna is visiting her sisters, Mrs. Val Cook and Mrs. Blanche King. * Mrs. Lottie Hunter was elected delegate to the Sunday school convention which convenes in Mount Vernon. * We are very glad to report the full recovery of W. R. Hoffmann, who has been ill. He reports a delightful time with his brother-in-law. * Little Val King of 4th street S. W. is able to walk after a few weeks' illness from a bad sprain. * Little John Sharp and Alice Skerritt are sick with measles.

Lockland, Ohio, June 20.—Miss Reitha Fowler, who has been sick for several weeks, passed away Wednesday at the home of her mother, McGregor avenue. * Elmwood place, She was buried at Reech Grove cemetery at 3 o'clock. * Miss Georgia Gentry of Harwell and Roscoe Jacobs of Wyoming were quietly married last week. * The Wyoming Colony school will hold its commencement exercises at Camp mock hall Tuesday at 5 p. m. * Chas. Armstrong's concert was highly enjoyed by all. * Mrs. Jennie Arthur and Miss Julia Derrickson of Wyoming were called to Oxford Sunday on account of the sudden death of Malcolm Hunt, a relative. * Mrs. Mary Thompson of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting her brother's family, Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland, and J. F. Dickerson of Idmwood Place, Ohio. She came to attend the graduation of her niece, Miss Edna Dickerson. Miss Dickerson received quite a number of presents. * Rev. Parsons of Dayton, Ohio, will preach next Sunday afternoon and evening at Rev. Dickinson's rally at Maple Street Christian church.

Elkhira, Ohio, June 20.—Leroy Bywaters and Ahe Robinson were in Elkhira Sunday. * Mrs. Ethel Edwards and Miss Ina Leach and John Clark of Cleveland were the guests of Mrs. Edwards' mother, Mrs. Lewis, on Seventeenth street. From here Mrs. Edwards goes to Canada and Mr. Clark to New York city. * Mrs. C. Anderson and Mrs. Stevens of Oberlin were in Elkhira Sunday. * Misses Edna Davis and Ruth Young of Lorain were in Elkhira last week. * The little daughter of Mrs. Nellie Clark is recovering rapidly from her illness. * Mrs. Jessie H. Vaughn, 547 North street, entertained Monday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Thompson and father at a 7 o'clock lunch. * The Children's Day program at the Second M. E. church was a great success and was well attended. * Mrs. Edith Brown, who was called home by the death of her mother, has returned. * Mrs. Wynn, Oak street, is visiting relatives in Xenia, Ohio. * Harry Robinson, Sixteenth street, has been sick. * Mrs. Hattie Black and Miss Mary Staley were in Cleveland last week.

Chillicothe, Ohio, June 20.—C. Bunch has returned to the city. * Mesdames S. Gailiff and R. Scott and children are spending a few days in Fostoria, Ohio. * Wm. Henry visited in Washington C. H., Ohio. * Mrs. Morse of Walnut street is able to be out again. * Mrs. Clifford Gailiff and children are visiting relatives in Alta Den, Miss. * W. E. Scott of Marion, Ohio, back from "over there," spent a few hours after his discharge with his grandfather, D. Scott, Seventh street. * Chavers, after a long illness, passed into the "great beyond." He was over 80 years old. * Miss Eunice Pepsico and Mr. Albert Marshall are the graduates this year from the C. H. S. Both are to matriculate in a university this fall. * Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ross McChay, a girl. * Visitors Wm. Dewey, Washington, D. C.; Henry Smith, Huntington, W. Va.; Sam Davis and wife, Chicago. * Isiah Lodge, No. 25, F. A. V. Masons, will observe St. John's day Sunday at Quinn Chapel. * Wedding bells will soon ring in the younger set as some of the young men are practicing the step to the wedding march. * Our boys' baseball team is progressing nicely. All that is needed is more practice.

Newark, Ohio, June 20.—Rev. G. L. Hicks, pastor of the A. M. E. Trinity Church, married Mr. Dickerson and Mrs. Hurst at the parsonage last Thursday. * Harry Toney was called to Zanesville last week on account of the death of his cousin, Chas. Toney. * Lee Jackson of Granville, Pa., was a Zanesville visitor last week. * Mrs. Carle Brown returned from Detroit, Mich., where she was the guest of relatives. * Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Smith of Columbus were in the city, guests of Mrs. Eugenia Smith. * Mrs. K. L. Black of Wright street, is entertaining with a lawn fete Thursday. * The Musical Maids Minstrels given by Circle No. 1 proved to be a great success. * Arthur Cunningham, manager of the Newark Grays baseball team, was in Columbus Thursday on business. While there he purchased new uniforms for the team. * At 12 o'clock, Tuesday noon, in the A. M. E. church, the marriage of Miss Goldie Harris and Carl W. Green was solemnized by the pastor, Rev. G. L. Hick. * Circle No. 6 will meet with Mrs. C. P. Henry next Monday.

Glendale, Ohio, June 20.—The exercises of the Glendale, public school were quite a success and were largely attended. * Miss Bessie C. Smith of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of her brothers, John Ewing and Henry Smith. * Mrs. Bernice Wigfall of Anderson, Ind., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Susie Warfield. * Mr. and Mrs. Ewing and Miss Bessie Smith have just returned from a trip to Atlatl, Tex., where he visited his uncle, with stopovers in Oklahoma, Kansas, St. Louis, Indianapolis and Anderson, where they visited her sister, Mrs. Wigfall. * The social at the Baptist church was quite a success. * The children's day at the A. M. E. church was largely attended. Everybody was glad to see the Sunday school superintendent, Rev. Saunders of Quinn chapel, present. Sunday morning after an illness of several days. * Robert Bright and John Williams were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warfield Sunday.

East Youngstown, Ohio, June 20.—The Woman's Missionary society met Monday at 1 o'clock. The mission appointed Sister Lillian Hale to represent it in the woman's auxiliary of the Eastern Ohio association at East Liverpool, Ohio. * Mrs. J. H. Craig of Reed avenue was the guest of Mrs. Willie Bonner of 68 5th street. * Rev. J. H. Cannada and Rev. P. Herford were the guests of Henry Bonner of 68 5th street. * Mrs. Clara Jenkins of Woodbine avenue died Sunday. * Mrs. Willie Bonner, 68 5th street, Mrs. Sarah Bonner, 17 7th street, Mrs. Ella Overler of 51 North Prospect street, Youngstown, Ohio, will visit friends in Sharon, Pa., Saturday. * Mrs. Mary C. Hayes and father, Sumpter Billups, will visit cousin and nephew, Henry and Arthur Bonner, 68 5th street. * Mrs. Rena Griffin of Attalla, Ala., will visit her sister, Willie Bonner, June 30.

Wilberforce, Ohio, June 20.—One of the most welcome guests at Wilberforce during the commencement was Mrs. W. C. Geddy of Painesville, Ohio. Mrs. Geddy was the guest of her son, Prof. J. E. Ormes, and family. * Mr. and Mrs. Cary B. Lewis, Chicago, who were the guests of Prof. Scarborough and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenkins, have returned. * Mrs. Mayme Clinksale of Chicago has returned to her home.

Sandusky, Ohio, June 20.—The Y. P. Guild will be entertained this week at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Warfield on Rockwell street by Miss May Ella Jackson. * Mrs. E. M. Alexander of South Depot street is on the sick list this week. * Everything is in readiness and a splendid and joyous time is expected at the "First Lawn Fete" of the summer which will be given by the Y. P. Guild of the Second Baptist church. * One of the best Children's Day programs that has ever been presented was rendered by the children at the Second Baptist church Sunday. * Miss Sarah Alexander, formerly of Cairo, Ill., is making her future home with her brother, Sam Alexander. * Mrs. Bessie Steele of Xenia, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hattie Parker of Lane street.

Day programs that has ever been presented was rendered by the children at the Second Baptist church Sunday. * Miss Sarah Alexander, formerly of Cairo, Ill., is making her future home with her brother, Sam Alexander. * Mrs. Bessie Steele of Xenia, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hattie Parker of Lane street.

Day programs that has ever been presented was rendered by the children at the Second Baptist church Sunday. * Miss Sarah Alexander, formerly of Cairo, Ill., is making her future home with her brother, Sam Alexander. * Mrs. Bessie Steele of Xenia, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hattie Parker of Lane street.

Day programs that has ever been presented was rendered by the children at the Second Baptist church Sunday. * Miss Sarah Alexander, formerly of Cairo, Ill., is making her future home with her brother, Sam Alexander. * Mrs. Bessie Steele of Xenia, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hattie Parker of Lane street.

Day programs that has ever been presented was rendered by the children at the Second Baptist church Sunday. * Miss Sarah Alexander, formerly of Cairo, Ill., is making her future home with her brother, Sam Alexander. * Mrs. Bessie Steele of Xenia, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hattie Parker of Lane street.