

THE BUCKEYE STATE

Alexander O. Taylor
Cleveland, O., Oct. 31.—Miss Blanche Brewer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brewer, 2277 E. 103rd street, was introduced last week. * Mrs. Belle Blum, 2307 E. 34th street, returned from New York City where she was highly entertained by Mrs. O. Harrison of West 144th street, and other New Yorkers. * The Vastaria Club held its initial meeting at the home of Mrs. R. B. Hodges on E. 85th street. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Charles Leatherman at which time the club will have its annual Halloween party. * H. C. Hipp, 3633 Scoville avenue, is one of the latest agents of the Defender. * Mrs. Ella White, Mrs. Marie Perkins, Mrs. Sula J. Anderson and Mrs. Jennie Day returned from a delightful trip to Jacksonville, Fla., where they attended the triennial meeting of the Parent W. M. M. Society of the A. M. E. Church. They speak in highest terms, most especially of the cordial greetings extended them by Richard Lewis, Mrs. White's nephew, formerly of Chicago but now an employee of the agricultural department, Washington, D. C., and by Dr. Hawkins, of the A. M. E. financial department, as they passed through the nation's capital en route south. Messrs. Ed Clemens, Toledo, and Myrtle Lewis, Wellsville, Ohio, accompanied the Clevelanders. The party had the pleasure of visiting Mrs. Mary Bethune's Girls' Industrial School at Dayton, Pa., 119 miles from Jacksonville. * The Hiawatha Club held its last meeting with Dr. Edwardina Grant. The visitors were Mrs. M. Burgess and Mrs. J. S. Jackson. Mrs. Minerva Taylor gave an interesting account of her recent visit to Detroit to attend the meeting of the Urban League. Next meeting with Mrs. Robert Coram, 1545 Winton avenue, Lakewood, Monday, November 3. All members are requested to be present at the election of officers will take place. Mrs. Carrie Crawford, president. * Lennel T. Boydston, Post 88, American Legion, will hold its next meeting Friday, November 7. Let all members be present as arrangements are to be made to send Harry J. Walker, delegate-elect, to the national convention at Minneapolis, Minn. * Mrs. Marie Turner Wooley is spending a few weeks with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Eugenia Bryant, 2113 Rhodes avenue, Chicago, Ill. * Samuel G. Ewing, 2182 E. 43rd street, who left for his home in Kentucky, O., hoping to regain his health, passed away October 15 from tuberculosis. He leaves a father, sister, and other relatives and a host of friends to mourn his demise. * Frederick C. McCoy, Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Rita D. Jackson, Boston, Mass., were united in marriage Tuesday, October 21 and will spend the winter with Mr. McCoy's mother in Pelham, Ga.

George Toy Held Up
Two armed burglars entered the restaurant of George Toy, 3302 Central avenue, 130 Monday morning. One pointed a revolver at Toy and said, "You're going to keep quiet just a little longer." The second pointed his gun at Miss Amelia Fowler, 2345 E. 37th street, the waitress. Both were ordered to stand with their faces toward the wall. One of the robbers tapped the cash register for $80 and both ran, warning Mr. Toy and Miss Fowler to remain silent ten minutes. The police were called but the thieves made their "get away." * The big musical rehearsal given recently by the choir of Avery Chapel, A. M. E. Church, was a decided success. The leading factors were Miss Witherspoon, soprano, who captivated the audience with her wonderful voice, and Miss Hattie Jackson, who won the favor of her hearers by her musical baritone voice. Mrs. B. Alston rendered one of her fine selections. Others contributing to the artistic success of the program were A. A. Williams, Miss Beatrice Stewart, pianist; Miss Daisy Brown, pianist; Mrs. and Miss Simmons, who gave a duet, and Miss F. M. Ecton and Miss C. Orton, who also gave a duet. The program was arranged by A. P. Parker, chorister, and Miss F. M. Ecton, organist. Rev. J. Price is the energetic pastor of the mission at 2615 Central avenue. * The "Novelty Party" at the Community Center, E. 10th street, this Thursday evening, October 30, for a charitable cause. * Mrs. William A. Webster, Franklin avenue, S. E., has returned from a vacation trip to Virginia on a visit with relatives and friends. November 1, Mrs. Webster will move into her new home in E. 88th street which she purchased recently. * J. T. Timberlake, messenger a number of years for the Graham Morton Transportation Co., Chicago, arrived in the city, accompanied by his wife, to spend the winter. They are stopping at "The Geraldine." * The Autumn Leaf Culture Club met Wednesday with Mrs. Rose Stowers of E. 35th street. Mrs. T. W. Fleming, president. * Mrs. Pearl C. George, of the Harmony Trio, writes her mother, Mrs. William Anderson, E. 90th street, that the trio is meeting with wonderful success in Boston. Their success has been so great and their reception so enthusiastic that the Colt Lyceum Bureau intends booking them in large cities only. Mrs. Olive Wells Ball and Miss Gladys Wells are the other members of the successful trio. * Charles Cameron, 15 years in the employ of the Hotel Hollenden, well known in the hotel world, died last week and was buried from Slaughter Bros. He lived at 2257 E. 14th street. * Clayton C. Jackson, E. 36th street, well known N. Y. C. private carman, was confined to his home last week by illness.

"Stork Special" Makes Visit
It's "Daddie" Jackson now because the "stork special" visited the home of Dr. Edwardina Grant last week Thursday morning and left a nine pound baby girl for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Jackson. Mother and daughter doing fine. "Daddie" Jackson is the popular pharmacist at the corner of Central and 40th. Mrs. Jackson was formerly Miss Viola Walker, Bisbee, Ariz. * Mrs. Amanda Richardson, Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of her cousins, Mrs. Hattie B. Miller, E. 103rd street, and Mrs. Susie Trimble, 10303 North Boulevard. * Miss Eloise Morgan, niece of Capt. and Mrs. Samuel Richardson, E. 103rd street, is convalescing from an attack of scarlet fever. * The American Woodmen, Camp No. 3, of Cleveland, last week entertained last week Thursday evening at Spira's hall on Scoville avenue with the following program: Opening address, Oscar Jones; readings, Miss Ruth Jones and J. L. Peaks; whistling solo, Mrs. E. Thurman; instrumental duet, Mr. and Mrs. W. Welker; soprano solos, Mrs. Louise Jackson and Mrs. Susie Jones; piano solos, Miss Gerline Houston and Miss Leona Bunker; solo, H. B. Bernhardt. The officers of the Camp are: A. L. Bernard, commander; R. L. Sisala, clerk; Dr. B. F. Rucker, banker; W. H. Ivy, vice commander; C. C. Cade, supervisor. * Mrs. Olive Naton, E. 103rd street, continues on the sick list. * C. R. Elliott is the Race candidate in the 18th ward for assessor. Vote for him. Re-elect Charles F. Weaver, our candidate for assessor in the 11th ward. * Miss Kaye Howard, 3348 State street, Chicago, is visiting friends in the city. * Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jones, E. 103rd street, received an interesting letter from her son, Louie V. Jones, who recently entered the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, to pursue a post graduate course in violin. He said that the faculty was very glad to see him return and were proud of the record he and his band made during the world war in France. He is playing first violin in the orchestra, again and doing fine. He says in a recent recital given by the great violinist, Kreisler, he (Kreisler) rendered for his first encore number a "Negro Folk Song," transcribed by Clarence Cameron White, the talented violinist, well known in Cleveland. * Mrs. Levy Livingston, 5903 Curtis avenue, gave a delightful reception in honor of her brother and nephew, John and Gaylord Rector, before leaving for P. A. A. Academy, where they will attend school. * The Philanthropic Association will give a Halloween party in the annex. Dancing, etc., will be the amusement features.

Mrs. James Scares Hold-up
Mrs. Hughes James, house-keeper at the beautiful new Masonic Temple, 3517 Euclid avenue, was held up in front of the temple Saturday night as she was leaving for home. Her screams for help were so loud that the lone hold-up man fled without relieving her of any of her belongings. * Howard Scott, 3710 Scoville avenue, president of Local 132, and Charles Robinson, secretary and treasurer, have returned from Zanesville, O., where they attended the A. P. L. convention as delegates. * Mrs. Mary L. LaSante, E. 30th street, left last week for Louisville, Ky., accompanied by her daughter, Miss Nannie Belle, who will pursue a special course at the State Normal. * The Present Day Club will give a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fairfax on E. 35th street, this Friday evening. * Mrs. Harriet Spencer, assistant superintendent of evangelistic department of Xenia, Greene County, Mo., V. C. T. U., was a visitor in the city last week, having returned from Xenia her with a party of friends. * Dr. C. H. Scott, chiropractor and expert barber, has purchased the barber shop at 2323 Scoville avenue. He has the Defender on sale. * E. F. Boyd, undertaker, reports the following deaths: Virgil Edwards, 43, 1430 Oregon avenue; James Brooks, 66, at Lakeside Hospital; George Calhoun, 40, 2503 E. 25th street; Bell Gillies, 21, 2621 E. 14th street; Abby Wade, 23, at Lakeside Hospital; remains shipped to Booneville, Va.; Martha Davis, 36, 2038 E. 39th street; Mrs. Alice Queen, 2343 E. 13rd street; funeral services conducted by Rev. Merchant, assisted by Rev. Fishback; Lizzie Beverly, 56, 1352 Webster avenue. * Guests at "The Geraldine," E. 40th street; Dr. J. W. Dunbar and J. H. Holloway, Akron; Dr. R. R. Downs, Springfield, Earle C. Allen and wife, Oberlin; Burton, Chicago; Mrs. Carby and son, Currier Mills, Ill.; J. W. Henderson and wife, Detroit, Mich.; William Jackson, Chicago; Levan Johnizer, Chicago; Prof. Felix H. Payne, Kansas City, Mo.; Jas. J. Seroggins, Chicago; Herbert Shelton, Wooster; J. T. Timberlake, Chicago; Phillip S. Yates and wife, Cleveland; L. W. Herald, Jamestown, N. Y.; James E. Ellis, Memphis, Tenn.; William Van Ruyter, Charleston, S. C.; Mrs. Mamie Park, Cincinnati, Ill.; Brown Lansing, Mich.; James Butler, Kalamazoo, Mich.; J. B. Roberts, Nashville, Tenn.; Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, New Rochelle, N. Y.; James Jarens, South Africa; Mr. and Mrs. Weatheron, Myria, O.; W. E. Owens, formerly of Atlanta, Ga., delightfully entertained a party of friends at the Royal with a promenade. The party of twelve thoroughly enjoyed the menu, which consisted of fruit cocktail, salted almonds, dry Martini, cream of chicken soup, celery and olives, pork tenderloin, French peas, stuffed tomatoes, asparagus tips, mashed potatoes, dark grape juice, etc. * Evelyn Murphy was found not guilty of second degree murder in Judge Cull's court Thursday. It was alleged that she shot and killed Frank Mitchell during a scuffle at her home on the night of July 9.

What's Doing in Politics
The Citizens' Harry L. Davis mass meeting at Lane Metropolitan Church, 40th and E. 46th, last Sunday afternoon was a mammoth affair. The speakers were Mayor Davis, Hon. H. E. Emerson, congressman; Councilman Fleming, Director Bernstein and Attorney A. H. Martin, Republican candidate for judge for the six year term. The meeting of the eleventh and twelfth wards at the E. P. Union Social Club headquarters, 2301 E. 37th street, was also a big success. The speakers were Director Bernstein, Sidney H. Thompson, Councilman Fleming, Attorney Martin, S. E. Woods and others. * On Friday evening, October 31, a big tent meeting will be held in the E. 38th street playgrounds to be preceded by a big parade from E. 8th street on Central to E. 38th street. The ladies assisted by Rev. P. O'Connell, chairman, are planning to make this the greatest demonstration for Councilman Fleming and other candidates of the campaign. * Remember, Attorney R. R. Checks is a candidate for municipal judge for the two year term. He is a Republican and should be given our solid support as well as Attorney A. H. Martin, who is the candidate for the long term. Every voter in the city who has registered can vote for our two candidates for judge, and elect them both. Martin has been elected by the Western Reserve Republican Club and other prominent organizations.

RE-ELECT COUNCILMAN FLEMING
Councilman Thomas W. Fleming has made an enviable record in the City Council and should receive the unanimous endorsement of the voters of the 11th ward at the poll next Tuesday. Through his influence the monthly pay roll of the city employees of Cleveland has grown to nearly $20,000 or more. He has lived in the 11th ward 27 years and is a property owner in the same. As councilman he has always been on the alert to the interests of the people of his ward and will continue to do so if re-elected. His services have been unselfish and he has always taken measure in personally investigating all complaints, listening to suggestions for betterment and acting for the general good of all. His record of accomplishment for Ward 11, his unquestioned faithfulness to duty and thorough experience in civic matters, entitles him to re-election. Mr. Fleming is endorsed for re-election by Mayor Harry L. Davis and the Republican County Executive Committee. Certainly experience counts for much in performing councilmanic duties and there are many more necessary improvements under way for Ward 11. We feel that with his past experience, and upon his record of improvement secured for the ward, THOMAS W. FLEMING SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED BY YOU as the best fitted candidate for your vote on November 4. VOTE FIRST CHOICE ONLY FOR THOMAS W. FLEMING. (Issued by the 11th Ward Thomas W. Fleming Campaign Committee.)

Scott, Independent Candidate
Hark! Hark! Remember! The world is in a revolution. The new democracy is at hand. The signs of the times warrant a revolution in the 11th ward body politic. Time changes, and we change with it. A change is a stimulant. Scott is the man of the hour. Stanley has admitted there is no chance for him. Come to 3350 Central avenue any evening and hear Scott speak and give us his platform. Elect Carroll L. Scott, the People's candidate for councilman of 11th ward, endorsed by the Civic League.

Are You Insured? If Not, Why Not?
SPECIAL—We are offering the following and provide complete protection at a minimum cost: For $24 per year, $20 weekly; $20 hospital weekly, $5,000 accidental death. For $18 per year, $15 weekly; $15 hospital weekly, $3,750 accidental death. For $12 per year, $10 weekly; $10 hospital weekly, $2,500 accidental death. For $6 per year, $5 weekly and $5 hospital weekly, $1,250 accidental death. We pay for every sickness, every accident for six months, no assessments. Can you beat it? This offer is only for 30 days. Will you let this opportunity pass? Write at once to H. L. Hunter, general agent, Peoples' Department, Commonwealth Casualty Company, 2368 E. 10th street, Cleveland, Ohio.—Adv.

Glendale, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The concert at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church was enjoyed by all who were present. * Mrs. Lydia Mackshery would be glad to hear of her sister, Maggie Henderson of Park street, Chicago. * Mrs. Baker arrived in Glendale from Columbus Friday. * Robert Bright was a guest of Mr. Ewing Sunday afternoon. * The concert at the Baptist church proved a success. * Mr. and Mrs. Coleman spent a few days in the village last week. * Rev. I. J. Williams preached in Rising Sun, Ind., Sunday and reports a nice time. * Mrs. Fry had a nice time and remodeled her home during her vacation. * Revs. Cole and McCoy and Mr. Kinlingworth were the guests of Rev. I. J. Williams Sunday. * Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Baker were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rease Warfield Sunday. * Mrs. Susie Warfield arrived home Sunday from her daughter's bedside in Tennessee.

Painesville, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Mrs. T. E. Gordon has returned from a visit in Andover, Ohio, where she spent the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Nora Johnson and family. * The Imperial Jubilee Four gave a concert at the First Congregational church (white) Monday, Oct. 20, for the benefit of the Union Congregational church. * Miller Martin has returned to his home in Murphysboro, Tenn., after spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Martin. * Mrs. Leopold Williams was a recent visitor here from Cleveland. * Mrs. John Freeman left Wednesday for a visit in Brandy, W. Va. * Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and daughter Lucille took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robinson and family, Grand River, Ohio. * Miss Eleanor Perkins and William Landrum were married in Cleveland Wednesday. Miss Perkins once lived here. * Quite a number of young people attended the dance in Ashtabula Thursday night.

Portsmouth, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Corp. Robert Thurman of the 4th Infantry, stationed in New Mexico, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. E. Marshall, 1144 13th street. Attorney H. A. Taylors of St. Louis was in the city on business last week. * Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Calie Banks has returned home from a few days' visit in Columbus, Ohio. * Madame Anita Paul Brown, who sang Thursday evening at the Lincoln theater, under the auspices of the Pleasant Green Baptist church, was greeted by a large appreciative audience. Miss Doxey, her accompanist, entertained the audience with two well-chosen readings. * Rev. R. R. Reed, pastor of the Pleasant Green Baptist church, attended the Ohio Baptist state convention while in Dayton, Ohio. * The Girl Scouts of the Eleventh street school sang a beautiful course Thursday evening at the Lincoln theater.

Troy, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The rally Sunday at the Second Baptist church was a success. Seven sermons were preached during the day. * Club No. 7, Rev. Huggins, captain, went over the top; $148.50 was realized. * William Hunt, one of Troy's best known colored citizens, died at 2:45 Thursday morning at his home on N. Franklin street, after having been ill for over a year. He was a member of Company C of the famous 55th Massachusetts regiment from 1863 to 1865. * A member of St. James' A. M. E. church, Coleman Post, G. A. R., a charter member of Carfield Lodge, G. N. O. of O. E. Household of Ruth, and Mason's order, he leaves a loving wife to mourn his loss.

Newark, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Mrs. William Turner stopped in Newark and was guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones. She was returning in her home in Mt. Vernon from Jacksonville, Fla. * Irvine and Joe Tate, Orville, and Troy Singer motored from Zanesville Saturday evening and were guests of friends. * Lincoln Hummelly and W. A. Jackson have been spending a few days at home on their vacation. * Mrs. W. A. Jackson, who was taken ill Saturday, was taken to the City hospital. * Mrs. Martha Riggs of Buckingham street spent Sunday in Columbus, guest of relatives. * Mr. Matthew Arnold has returned to his home after a trip through Pennsylvania. * Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown entertained a few friends with a dancing party last week. * The Blue Light students' dance will be held Friday night. Every one is expecting a grand time.

Sandusky, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Raymond Roberts and Miss Essie Long of Toledo are spending a few days with Mrs. Long of Warren street. * Louis Brouters was a Sunday visitor at Toledo. * Mrs. Harvey Clark of Hendry underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital. * Mrs. E. M. Alexander is opening up a grocery store at 1230 S. Depot street. * Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell of Warren street are comfortably situated in their new home, which is up-to-date and modern. * The Second Baptist church has planned a rally for Nov. 30, at which time a prize will be given to the club which contributes most money. Rev. G. D. Smith and Miss Emma Glickerson, delegates to the Ohio state convention, made their report Sunday night.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Rev. and Mrs. M. I. Pemberton motored to Waynesburg Sunday, where Rev. Pemberton preached. * Carl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Friday, met with a painful accident last Friday by being run down by an auto. * Rev. Farrell spent a few days in Washington, Pa., attending conference. * Gray Duling spent the week-end with his family in Lanesville, Ohio. * Mrs. Samuel Lawrence of Pittsburgh was a week-end visitor of her mother, Mrs. I. Brown. * Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels entertained the C. S. W. C. Tuesday evening. * The Ladies' Aid Society met at the residence of Mrs. Eva Hill on Thursday afternoon. * Mrs. Jas. Schuman is on the sick list. * Mrs. Albert Moore, who has been ill, is able to be out again. * Lewis (Bud) Smilwood is confined to his home by illness. * Ferdinand Brown of Cleveland has accepted a position at McKinley Hotel and expects to remain in Canton for some time.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

The Ladies' Social Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Harriet Martin. Refreshments were served. * Mrs. Viola Taylor and sons, Granville and Robert, left Sunday for a visit in Pittsburgh and McKeesport, Pa., and East Liverpool, Ohio.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Councilman Fleming
Councilman Thomas W. Fleming has made an enviable record in the City Council and should receive the unanimous endorsement of the voters of the 11th ward at the poll next Tuesday. Through his influence the monthly pay roll of the city employees of Cleveland has grown to nearly $20,000 or more. He has lived in the 11th ward 27 years and is a property owner in the same. As councilman he has always been on the alert to the interests of the people of his ward and will continue to do so if re-elected. His services have been unselfish and he has always taken measure in personally investigating all complaints, listening to suggestions for betterment and acting for the general good of all. His record of accomplishment for Ward 11, his unquestioned faithfulness to duty and thorough experience in civic matters, entitles him to re-election. Mr. Fleming is endorsed for re-election by Mayor Harry L. Davis and the Republican County Executive Committee. Certainly experience counts for much in performing councilmanic duties and there are many more necessary improvements under way for Ward 11. We feel that with his past experience, and upon his record of improvement secured for the ward, THOMAS W. FLEMING SHOULD BE RE-ELECTED BY YOU as the best fitted candidate for your vote on November 4. VOTE FIRST CHOICE ONLY FOR THOMAS W. FLEMING. (Issued by the 11th Ward Thomas W. Fleming Campaign Committee.)

Scott, Independent Candidate
Hark! Hark! Remember! The world is in a revolution. The new democracy is at hand. The signs of the times warrant a revolution in the 11th ward body politic. Time changes, and we change with it. A change is a stimulant. Scott is the man of the hour. Stanley has admitted there is no chance for him. Come to 3350 Central avenue any evening and hear Scott speak and give us his platform. Elect Carroll L. Scott, the People's candidate for councilman of 11th ward, endorsed by the Civic League.

Are You Insured? If Not, Why Not?
SPECIAL—We are offering the following and provide complete protection at a minimum cost: For $24 per year, $20 weekly; $20 hospital weekly, $5,000 accidental death. For $18 per year, $15 weekly; $15 hospital weekly, $3,750 accidental death. For $12 per year, $10 weekly; $10 hospital weekly, $2,500 accidental death. For $6 per year, $5 weekly and $5 hospital weekly, $1,250 accidental death. We pay for every sickness, every accident for six months, no assessments. Can you beat it? This offer is only for 30 days. Will you let this opportunity pass? Write at once to H. L. Hunter, general agent, Peoples' Department, Commonwealth Casualty Company, 2368 E. 10th street, Cleveland, Ohio.—Adv.

Glendale, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The concert at Quinn Chapel A. M. E. church was enjoyed by all who were present. * Mrs. Lydia Mackshery would be glad to hear of her sister, Maggie Henderson of Park street, Chicago. * Mrs. Baker arrived in Glendale from Columbus Friday. * Robert Bright was a guest of Mr. Ewing Sunday afternoon. * The concert at the Baptist church proved a success. * Mr. and Mrs. Coleman spent a few days in the village last week. * Rev. I. J. Williams preached in Rising Sun, Ind., Sunday and reports a nice time. * Mrs. Fry had a nice time and remodeled her home during her vacation. * Revs. Cole and McCoy and Mr. Kinlingworth were the guests of Rev. I. J. Williams Sunday. * Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Baker were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rease Warfield Sunday. * Mrs. Susie Warfield arrived home Sunday from her daughter's bedside in Tennessee.

Painesville, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Mrs. T. E. Gordon has returned from a visit in Andover, Ohio, where she spent the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Nora Johnson and family. * The Imperial Jubilee Four gave a concert at the First Congregational church (white) Monday, Oct. 20, for the benefit of the Union Congregational church. * Miller Martin has returned to his home in Murphysboro, Tenn., after spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Martin. * Mrs. Leopold Williams was a recent visitor here from Cleveland. * Mrs. John Freeman left Wednesday for a visit in Brandy, W. Va. * Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and daughter Lucille took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Robinson and family, Grand River, Ohio. * Miss Eleanor Perkins and William Landrum were married in Cleveland Wednesday. Miss Perkins once lived here. * Quite a number of young people attended the dance in Ashtabula Thursday night.

The Ladies' Social Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Harriet Martin. Refreshments were served. * Mrs. Viola Taylor and sons, Granville and Robert, left Sunday for a visit in Pittsburgh and McKeesport, Pa., and East Liverpool, Ohio.

Newark, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Mrs. William Turner stopped in Newark and was guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones. She was returning in her home in Mt. Vernon from Jacksonville, Fla. * Irvine and Joe Tate, Orville, and Troy Singer motored from Zanesville Saturday evening and were guests of friends. * Lincoln Hummelly and W. A. Jackson have been spending a few days at home on their vacation. * Mrs. W. A. Jackson, who was taken ill Saturday, was taken to the City hospital. * Mrs. Martha Riggs of Buckingham street spent Sunday in Columbus, guest of relatives. * Mr. Matthew Arnold has returned to his home after a trip through Pennsylvania. * Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown entertained a few friends with a dancing party last week. * The Blue Light students' dance will be held Friday night. Every one is expecting a grand time.

Sandusky, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Raymond Roberts and Miss Essie Long of Toledo are spending a few days with Mrs. Long of Warren street. * Louis Brouters was a Sunday visitor at Toledo. * Mrs. Harvey Clark of Hendry underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital. * Mrs. E. M. Alexander is opening up a grocery store at 1230 S. Depot street. * Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell of Warren street are comfortably situated in their new home, which is up-to-date and modern. * The Second Baptist church has planned a rally for Nov. 30, at which time a prize will be given to the club which contributes most money. Rev. G. D. Smith and Miss Emma Glickerson, delegates to the Ohio state convention, made their report Sunday night.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 31.—Rev. and Mrs. M. I. Pemberton motored to Waynesburg Sunday, where Rev. Pemberton preached. * Carl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Friday, met with a painful accident last Friday by being run down by an auto. * Rev. Farrell spent a few days in Washington, Pa., attending conference. * Gray Duling spent the week-end with his family in Lanesville, Ohio. * Mrs. Samuel Lawrence of Pittsburgh was a week-end visitor of her mother, Mrs. I. Brown. * Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daniels entertained the C. S. W. C. Tuesday evening. * The Ladies' Aid Society met at the residence of Mrs. Eva Hill on Thursday afternoon. * Mrs. Jas. Schuman is on the sick list. * Mrs. Albert Moore, who has been ill, is able to be out again. * Lewis (Bud) Smilwood is confined to his home by illness. * Ferdinand Brown of Cleveland has accepted a position at McKinley Hotel and expects to remain in Canton for some time.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.

Elmwood Place, Ohio, Oct. 31.—The play entitled "The Road to Happiness," given at the First Baptist church last Friday evening, was a success. * The Valley Forge Club had their installation of officers last Thursday afternoon. * Owen Cornelson, who has been ill for some time, passed away last Thursday and was buried Sunday from Mt. Zion Baptist church, Lockland. * Rev. W. H. Dickerson of Lockland went to Missouri to preach the Dedication sermon for Rev. William Flowers' new church. Rev. Parsons of Dayton filled his pulpit Sunday. * Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elliot are rejoicing over a boy child born Oct. 20. * P. and Mrs. Paul Williams have bought a beautiful home on Forest avenue. * Allen Ingram of Toledo, Ohio, visited Mrs. A. L. Ingram and family last week.