Harry L. Davis, Race's Friend
Harry L. Davis, three times mayor of Cleveland, has certainly proved his friendship for our group, as has Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago. The annual pay rolls of the Colored employees under the Davis administration amount to over $350,000 yearly, an unprecedented record for any mayor of Cleveland. Harry L. Davis' splendid record of the past as mayor of Cleveland is the promise of the future as governor of Ohio. Vote for him unanimously. He is for the common people, regardless of race, creed or color. Our voters are advised to vote straight the national and state Republican tickets. Look for the eagle on both tickets and there will be no chance of your ticket being thrown out. Register your protest against the malicious propaganda being spread throughout the nation by the Democrats by voting the straight Republican tickets unanimously. Democrats are busy with all kinds of propaganda intimidating the white voters by a cry of "Negro domination" should the Republicans be successful. Remember, voters, the Democrats are pledged to favor racial segregation, while the Republicans are pledged against any such action. The following are the Republicans to be voted for by us on the non-partisan judicial ballot: C. T. Marshall, for chief justice of the Supreme Court; Thomas A. Jones and Edward S. Mathias, for judge of Supreme Court (long term); Benson W. Hough, for judge of the Supreme Court (short term); Alvan F. Ingersoll, for judge of Court of Appeals (six year term); H. G. Shalbly, for judge of Court of Appeals (term ending Dec. 31, 1921); Thomas M. Kennedy, W. D. Neff, William Beebe and H. I. Emerson, for judge of the Court of Common Pleas; Alexander Hadden, for probate judge. Republicans on the county ticket we must vote for are George Wallace, for county clerk; C. B. Stannard, for county sheriff; Ralph C. McBride, for county treasurer; Lyman O. Newell, for county recorder; Frank R. Lander, for county surveyor; Edward C. Stanton, for county prosecutor; A. P. Hammond, for county coroner; Fred Kohler, Alva R. Dittick and Jerry R. Zmunt, for county commissioners. Here are the Republican candidates for the legislature: W. R. Green, George H. Bender, Arthur H. Day, Joseph J. Rowe, for state senators; Harry E. Davis, S. E. Woods, Henry Beck, Charles Brenner, Walter C. Cole, A. S. Cooley, R. F. Edwards, Owen N. Evans, John G. Fischer, George W. Greene, Richard R. Hawkins, L. L. Marshall, Albert Snow, M. J. Walther, for state representatives. W. R. Green, Woods and Davis are the Colored candidates. Place a cross (X) in the circles under the eagles and you will make no mistake. Mrs. Rose B. Stowers, ward leader, who has been working zealously for the success of the Republican ticket, is the author of a splendid article, "Why I Would Vote for Harding." In it she says Harding is a man of proved ability after many years of trial, while Cox has never appeared above the mediocre in any question he has had to deal with. Harding has come before the public with definite constructive policies, while Cox has offered nothing but carping criticism. On the racial question Harding has said, "In the new Americanism we want no sectional lines, no North, no South, no East, no West. Let the old imaginary lines of old prejudice be forgotten," etc. Don't fail to vote straight and vote early.
