

ACKSONVILLE'S ELITE ENTERTAINS VISITORS

Jacksonville, Fla., Jan. 25.—One of the most outstanding social events of the season was the reception which was given by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simmons at their residence, corner of Ashley and Clay Sts., honoring Mrs. Caroline W. Harris and daughter, Mrs. Helen Harris-Harris, of Washington City, who are visitors in the city.

Mrs. Caroline W. Harris is a former member of the board of education of the District of Columbia, and her daughter, Mrs. Helen Harris, is the wife of Mortimer H. Harris, a prominent real estate broker and attorney of Washington, D. C., Assisting Mrs. Simmons were Mrs. M. B. McLendon, who was at the door; Mrs. W. J. Geter, who introduced the callers; Mrs. S. H. Hart, Sr., who was in the receiving line. Mrs. Ethel L. Miles directed the service in the dining room. Mme. Zara Cully-Brown poured tea; Mrs. Wm. Roberts and Mrs. George Jefferson assisted in the dining room. Miss Jennie DeCoursey was at the punch bowl. The entire evening was enlivened by choicest music, with Mrs. Anita Holmes at the piano; Miss Lydia R. Cutton with the violin. The daintiest refreshments were served. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons, who were hosts at this reception, is one among the most pretentious in the city, elaborately furnished and possessing the very latest modern appointments in every detail. The reception was one that easily stands at the very front of any social event that has been witnessed in this city for quite a while. The Harrises are visiting Florida for the winter.
