

set, returned Sunday from a visit with friends in Bay City, Mich.

Dame Rumor says Russell Fox, E. 106th St., will be married soon to Miss Mildred Percival, stenographer in Attorney Selmo Glenn's office.

Miss Eleanor Smith, Brookline, Mass., is in the city for the holiday season, stopping at the Hotel Cleveland. Miss Smith is being royally entertained by old Boston friends.

Miss N. Pearl Mitchell, national president; Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker, Miss Lucretia Grant and Mrs. Inez Fairfax report a pleasant and interesting session of the A. K. A. Boule in Philadelphia.

Dr. George R. Ferguson, who came from Charlottesville, Va., some months ago and opened up attractive offices at 5809 Central Ave., has as guest his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. C. Fowler of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Charles H. Leatherman, 1220 E. 86th St., is one of the happiest of Clevelanders since Christmas, when her husband presented her with a beautiful Packard sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Wheeler, 6620 Belvidere Ave., spent Christmas in Dunkirk, N. Y., attending a house party of Miss Lucille Wheeler at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wheeler. Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Wheeler spent the remainder of the holidays with relatives and friends in Detroit, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Smalls and family are pleasantly located at 2295 E. 101st St. Mrs. Smalls and children recently arrived from Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alixson, 2235 E. 81st St., announce the arrival of a 6-pound daughter Wednesday, Dec. 24. Mother, formerly Miss Ednah Fountaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fountaine, and daughter doing fine.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Scott spent the holidays in Erie, Pa., as guests of Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. Pudry, and sister, Miss Fannie Pudry.

Attorney and Mrs. Clayborne George had as dinner guests Sunday Miss Edith Wright, Attorney Louise J. Pridgeon and Miss Eleanor Smith of Brookline, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hicks, 2210 E. 80th St., have as guest for the holiday season Miss Minnie Black, Lancaster, Ohio.

Dr. Floyd Ramsey was married recently to a beauty expert in Akron, Ohio.

Frederick Lewis of the J. W. Wills company was married this week to Mrs. Ethel Jackson, report has it.

Miss Virginia Belle Hodges of the Cleveland Urban league has as guest Miss Emma Westcott, teacher, of Baltimore.

Report of the Over the Top club Christmas party will appear in next week's issue.

The annual Christmas party of the Mozart Glee club at Sojacks academy Dec. 26 was one of the outstanding affairs of the week.

Mrs. Florence Burke, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Eliza Scott, 2173 E. 81st St., being called here by the death of her sister, Miss Rhea Scott, returned to her home in Jamaica, L. I., Tuesday.

E. E. Murrell, Jr., student at Ohio State, is spending his vacation in the city as guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Murrell, 5807 Central Ave.

Mrs. H. A. Hunt, Jr., returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in New York.

Selby Minor and Thomas W. Fleming, Jr., students at the University of Michigan, are spending the holidays at home.

E. A. Taylor and Miss Carolyn Taylor has as guest for a short season last week their brother, Samuel R. Taylor, New York city. Among those who entertained for Mr. Taylor were Mrs. Welch, E. 82d St.; W. E. Walker and Locosta Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tedford, 2222 E. 102d St., have as house guest for the holidays the mother of Dr. L. L. Rogers of Chicago.

Dame Rumor says Miss Sarah Sims, E. 103d St., will marry in the near future.

Lulu, Lillian, Mildred and Charles Wells of Oberlin were week-end guests of their cousins, Attorney and Mrs. J. E. Ballard, E. 74th St.

Carry Cheer to Old Folks

The Vashti class of St. John's Sunday school carried cheer to the residents of the Old Folks' home on the night of Dec. 26 by rendering an excellent program, after which they gave presents to each of the guests. Among those on the program were Mary Randolph and Mrs. Margaret Anderson, who gave recitations; Mrs. E. A. Clarke, piano solo; a quartet by Mrs. McQueen of St. John's choir, Miss Ruth Hamilton, Miss Lelia Andrews and Miss Freeman, and a P. W. A. quartet composed of Mrs. Bows, Miss Brown, Miss Clark and Miss Hunt. Mrs. Anderson read the Vashti Journal, which was very interesting. For the success of the program credit is due Mrs. C. R. Elliott, chairman. Among the special guests were Mrs. Brown of Chicago and a lady guest of Mrs. Buford, 2179 E. 78th St.

Pretty Christmas Party

One of the prettiest and gayest of the Yuletide affairs last week was the party of the Ye-Buz-Fuz club at the Caterers club last Friday evening. The decorations were very attraction and in keeping with the holiday spirit, an outstanding feature being the presence of toy balloons with the club name inscribed on each balloon. Each guest was presented with one as a souvenir. Special out-of-town guests were Miss Banks of Pittsburgh; Miss Aurelia Ward of Chicago and Miss Eleanor Smith of Brookline, Mass. Dancing to the beautiful strains of the Buckeye orchestra was indulged in until a late hour. Beautiful ladies, gowned in the latest fashions, furnished a picturesque scene. A Christmas tree filled with presents and plenty of white and pink ices and punch were features of the evening's enjoyment.

Cleveland Society

Mrs. John Pettiford, Oberlin, Ohio, spent the Christmas holidays in the city as guest of Mrs. H. B. Mason, E. 101st St., and Mrs. Ed Gales, E. 102d St. Mrs. Mason entertained Christmas eve and Mrs. Gales Christmas day.

Among the Cleveland "sorors" who will attend the national meetings in Philadelphia are Miss Pearl Mitchell, national president; Mrs. Oliver A. Taylor, Mrs. Inez Fairfax, Mrs. Hazel Mountain Walker and Miss Blanche Johnson.

Mrs. W. Robert Smalls and children arrived Monday evening to join her husband, who is in business here. The Smalls family will reside on E. 101st St.

Miss Nelle Hackney, one of the secretaries at the P. W. A., is spending the holidays at her home in Greengarden, Pa.

Miss Myrtle Wiggins of the Antioch Welfare center is spending the holidays at her home near Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. C. R. Elliott, 43d and Cedar, is entertaining friends from Xenia and Wakarusa, Ohio.

P. W. Lemon, superintendent of St. John's Sunday school, well known for his many attractive qualities, has been selected by Miss Jane E. Hunter, secretary, to manage the new building fund campaign.

Prof. J. Francis Gregory, head of the English department of Miner Normal school, Washington, D. C., is spending the holidays with his family at 2181 E. 81st St.

Mrs. Robbie Watkins, 6204 Scovill Ave., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Izola Harris, 121 Baugh Ave., St. Louis, and is being royally entertained while there.

Ora J. Harris, manager of the Harris Temple theater, presented his wife, Mrs. Agnes Harris, with a beautiful Reo sedan. Of course Mrs. Harris is all in smiles.

The following marriage announcements have been made to Cleveland society: Mr. and Mrs. John Walker, 2275 E. 101st St., announce the coming marriage of their son, Joseph D. Walker, to Miss Zora Harrison, 2243 E. 93d St., daughter of John Harris and granddaughter of Mrs. Josie Harris. The coming marriage of Miss Mae Ross, 10810 Colonial Dr., to Clarence Johns, 10308 Wain Ct., is also announced.

Miss Dorothy Bush, Utica Ave., popular member of the younger smart