

THE BUCKEYE STATE

CLEVELAND NEWS

By ALEXANDER O. TAYLOR
Cleveland Office, 2398 E. 55th St.
Phone Randolph 969

Councilman Fleming Goes Big

One of the outstanding features of the recent election was the fact that Councilman Thomas W. Fleming was sent back to the city council for the eighth consecutive time. Out of 114 candidates, he was one of three who were elected by first choice votes under the proportional representation plan. The other two were Councilmen Herman Blinde and John Alzman, both white, the wonderful showing made by Mr. Fleming is a great tribute to his record as councilman the past 14 years. To his wife, Mrs. Fleming, as manager of his campaign, is due unstinted praise for the wonderful manner in which she handled the affairs of the campaign throughout.

Mr. E. J. Gregg received 847 first choice votes, Harry Harper and Dr. Joe T. Thomas both receiving about one hundred first choice votes.

W. Robert Smalls has resigned as assistant to District Manager M. C. Clarke of the Supreme Life and accepted the assistant management of the Cleveland People's Finance corporation.

Mrs. George Kelly, E. 57th St., is recovering from burns sustained when a gas stove exploded in her home.

Attorney Clayborne George made a wonderful showing in his run for the city council in the Fourth district, receiving 1,376 first choice votes. Mr. George is still receiving the congratulations of his friends. The campaign was ably managed by Jarrett Chavous and A. H. Dorsey.

Mrs. W. P. Sanders, W. W. Whitfield, J. L. Jackson, Messrs. H. C. Quandt, manager of the Hotel Lincoln, and Winfield Kelly were recently made members of the Buckeye lodge of Moose.

George Marshall, husband of Mrs. Cora Jackson Marshall, died at the city hospital from pneumonia. The deceased was the son-in-law of Deaconess Mrs. Mary Jackson of St. John A. M. E. church.

Rev. Robert Mosley, one of Cleveland's pioneer citizens and local A. M. E. ministers, died at the Warrensville sanitarium.

Lindsay Plair, the grocer, has gone to the Warrensville fresh air camp for treatment.

James Brooks, son of Mrs. Hall Carver, 2146 E. 109th St., sustained a fracture of his left foot while at work on his truck last week.

The many friends of Mrs. Lillian Morrison, 2212 E. 33d St., were pained to learn of her death in Detroit. Mrs. Morrison is a native of Baltimore, Md.

Robert Moman of St. Louis, Mo., who is in the city awaiting his transportation preparatory to leaving for Montana, Liberia, to teach in the diocese supervised by Bishop Brooks, is in the city again as the guest of his brother-in-law, J. B. Calloway, 1374 Lakewood road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Glens and Clarkwood Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Tyler, Harry Tyler and Mrs. Kathleen Gray were called to Mt. Vernon, Ohio, on account of the death of their grandmother, Mrs. Dollah Ann McIntosh, one of Mt. Vernon's most prominent citizens. She leaves besides her grand and great grandchildren, one son-in-law and four nephews. She was well known in Cleveland, where many friends were shocked to hear of her death after only two weeks' illness.

William L. Fuller, who arrived from Columbus to reside here permanently, was one of the successful applicants to pass the state examination in Columbus in October and was granted a license as an embalmer and funeral director.

Mrs. Elizabeth Garland was in Charity hospital, the result of taking poison. It is said, with suicidal intent. Domestic troubles are said to have prompted Mrs. Garland to take the poison at her home, 2227 E. 57th St.

Mrs. Rose Pigati, 22, 2345 E. 37th St., was instantly killed Saturday night when a revolver in the hands of a friend was accidentally discharged as she stepped between two men in the role of a peacemaker. The affair took place at 2421 E. 43d St., where the men quarreled.

Little Miss Weltha Lipscombe gave a very pretty party at the home of Mrs. Charles Anderson, 2343 E. 55th St., 50 boys and girls being present and enjoying the hospitality of Weltha.

Mrs. Monroe Eckels, 2319 E. 101st St., surprised her sister, Miss Harriet Smith, with a delightful birthday party and luncheon Tuesday evening, Nov. 3. Covers were laid for 12. Mrs. Eckels and Miss Smith proved very pleasing hostesses. Little Billy Eckels, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eckels, was very much in evidence during the entire evening.

One of the prettiest affairs of the season was the dinner given by Mrs. Oscar Hoy and Mrs. Johnnie Hoy at their home, 184 E. 90th St., honoring Miss Jessie M. Pointer of Detroit. The dining room was beautifully decorated. The special guests were Miss Beatrice Swann, Mrs. Mayor and Miss Mildred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danahy, Mr. and Mrs. Minus Phillips, Mrs. Anna Franks, Miss Scott, Mrs. Campbell, Mr. Hatchett, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephen and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer.

Mrs. George Ogden, E. 103d St., entertained at a party recently honoring her husband's birthday. A large number of guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wilson, Euclid Heights Blvd., entertained friends at a very enjoyable party last week.

Mrs. Hancock, 2253 E. 57th St., gave a kiddie party in honor of her adopted daughter, Louise Wells. Little Loretta Blake won first prize. Miss Catherine Williams assisted Mrs. Hancock.

The Church Aid society of Shiloh Baptist church gave an enjoyable and successful Halloween party and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, 2345 E. 55th St. Mrs. Anderson is president; Mrs. Francis Martin, secretary, and Mrs. Wardell, chairman.

Cuyahoga lodge No. 25, and Glensara temple No. 21, I. B. P. O. E. W., of Cleveland held their Thanksgiving service at Mount Zion temple Sunday afternoon with A. E. Wynne as master of ceremonies. Hon. J. Finley Wilson, grand exalted ruler, was the principal speaker. Rev. Dr. H. H. Brown delivered the special Thanksgiving sermon. One of the special features of the musical program was the singing of Miss Mary Harris, sister of Mrs. E. H. Brown. The Elks band under the direction of Prof. Lowry rendered several snappy selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Cohen motored to Chicago for the week-end. Mrs. Cohen's mother, Mrs. H. C. Tuck, was their guest last week.

Mrs. Nellie Hunt, 2256 E. 63d St., has just returned from a trip to Columbus, Ohio, where she was called.

MRS. NELLIE HUNT
Grand Lecturer of the Ohio Order of Eastern Star.

In conference with the R. G. M. Miss Ida Williams, and the district grand lecturer, Mrs. Olivia Green of Cincinnati. Mrs. Rachel Bond, Toledo, and Mrs. Alta Nelson, Springfield. Mrs. Hunt while in the city attended the dedication and reception of Clara lodge, F. and A. M., and was royally entertained at the hospital home of Miss Williams, N. Ninth St. Mrs. Hunt has served two years as matron of Queen Elizabeth chapter No. 2 of Cleveland, is past grand wisdom and past grand warder of the grand chapter, O. E. S. is also quite a church and civic worker. She is a faithful member of Shiloh Baptist church and recently completed three weeks' jury service in common pleas court.

Society

The many Cleveland friends of Miss Carrie Starkis, former domestic science teacher at the Phyllis Wheatley association, will be pleased to learn of her recent marriage to Homer Turner. The popular couple are residing at 626 Sixth Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. The bride had a host of friends in Cleveland.

J. Walter Wells, Jr., spent the week-end in Akron as the guest of friends. Friends are wondering why so many trips to Akron recently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Crutchfield, Spearfish, S. D., is visiting her father, Samuel Sampson, Jr., Leavenworth, Kan. Mrs. Crutchfield is the sister of Mrs. H. H. Moore, 2322 E. 90th St., Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Jones, Sandwich, Ontario, and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Anderson, Chatham, Ontario, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones, 12616 Imperial Ave.

Mrs. Walter Johnson, E. 49th St., returned from Cincinnati after a very pleasant three weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William L. Fuller arrived from Columbus, Ohio, to reside permanently at the home of Mrs. R. L. Williams and daughter, Mrs. F. A. Arnold, of Keys Ave.

The Present Day club gave a stork shower, honoring Mrs. Hazel Hickman. Mrs. Luther Bailey, E. 103d St., returned from Springfield, Ohio, after a pleasant two months' visit with her sister.

Samuel Russell is expected in the city from Detroit for the week-end the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morris, 2227 E. 57th St. Mr. Morris is improving slowly at Huron Rd. hospital from a fractured skull.

One of the most delightful affairs of the Halloween season was the party of the Trinity club Friday, Oct. 20, at the home of Mrs. Mary K. Meeks, E. 57th St. Merriment held sway until a late hour, when delicious refreshments were served. At a reasonable hour the guests went home declaring to have had a most wonderful time. The next meeting was to be held at the home of Mrs. Nutted, 2114 Carnegie Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Clark, Utica Ave., entertained a few friends Sunday evening last week, honoring Mr. and Mrs. George Bowman and Mr. and Mrs. H. Stewart, who motored here from Columbus, Ohio. Miss Dorothy Bush, charming daughter of Mrs. Rose Bush and popular member of St. John's choir, rendered two vocal solos which were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Mamie Hawkins, E. 45d St., proved a pleasing hostess when she entertained Friday at the Women's club in E. 40th St., Lorain Dr. and Mrs. George Sutton and Dr. Croghan of Elyria and Lorain, Ohio.

The Iris club entertained members and friends at a very jolly Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schumaker in E. 56th St.

Sunday week Miss Beatrice Wright and brother, Lloyd Wright, delightfully entertained the members of the popular day Dec club at a luncheon at their beautiful home in W. 55th St. After a very pleasant session of games and a social hour the guests were seated at a prettily decorated table and treated to one of the most delicious menus in the history of the organization.

Covers were laid for 15. The special guests were Miss Bertha Abbott and Messrs. Hawkins, Edward Prince and Wendell Scott.

Miss Dorothy Bush, Utica Ave., gave a Sunday evening supper at her home, honoring Miss Bertha Abbott, who left for Muncie, Ind., after spending several weeks in Cleveland with friends. Covers were laid for eight. Guests included Miss Beatrice Wright, Mrs. Henry Morris (now Equilla Anderson), Edward Prince, Morris Fox and Lloyd Wright. Miss Abbott left the city to enter Ball's Teachers college.

Mrs. Rachel Perry was here from Pittsburgh Sunday spending the day with friends.

Mrs. Sada J. Anderson, E. 95th St., attended the Pittsburgh A. M. E. conference in Washington, Pa.

Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Clarke had as guests over Sunday Rev. Clarke's brother, Clarence Clarke, and friends from Columbus, Ohio.

Cleveland friends of Mrs. Wallace Taylor of Hammond are sending congratulations to a baby girl arriving at the Taylor home a few days ago. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Viola Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Pleasantville, Ohio.

Mrs. Pearl Edwards is located in the city again, having spent several months in Chicago with her friend, Mrs. Henry Bolden. Mrs. Edwards is a very popular modiste. She is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Gray, E. 100th St.

Mrs. George L. C. Kanne, 2231 E. 101st St., has been very ill.

Miss Ethel Rhee, E. 90th St., one of our popular public school teachers, was confined to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Underwood, 2297 55th St., have gone to Detroit, Mich., to spend the winter with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Levett, newly-weds.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spears of the Defender circulation department, 5817 Central Ave., will motor to Detroit, Mich., to attend the marriage of their niece, Miss Ethel Mitchell, Nov. 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Head, E. 40th St., were in Elyria last week to attend the funeral of Mr. Head's brother.

Mrs. E. F. Logan, Miss Marian Anderson and Leo Anderson arrived in the city from Washington, D. C., to spend the winter with their brother and niece, Clarence Williams, 2200 E. 57th St. Pete Ross has gone to California to spend several months with his father.

Mrs. Mary Beatrice New York city, who has been out West visiting her sisters, Mrs. A. E. Adams, 775 E. 35th St., Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Alice Walker, Boulton St., and brother, Willie Martin, same address, arrived in Cleveland to visit her sisters, Mrs. Sophie Dowdell, Gates Mills Heights; Mrs. Fred Moore, 2350 E. 57th St., and Miss Jennie Martin, E. 58th St.

Eddie King and sister, Mrs. Alberta Jackson, Helena, Ark., are in the city to remain indefinitely with Mrs. Catherine Mayo, 10529 Hudson Ave.

Theodore Jones, Detroit, Mich., spent the first of the week in Cleveland as a guest of J. W. Mills, Jr.

News of the Clubs

The Coterie club will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Winifred Pope, 2306 E. 58th St., Tuesday evening, Nov. 17.

The Unity club met with Mrs. Agnes Arrington, 1322 Leavox Rd., Friday, Oct. 30. Whist was played from 3 to 5. Mrs. Florence Thomas was winner of first prize and Miss E. Tittworth the second prize. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. The club members surprised Mrs. and Mrs. Leslie Mitchell, 5214 Hawthorne Ave., with a second annual miscellaneous shower in honor of their little baby boy, Mrs. Laymon Brown, 2288 E. 100th St., will be hostess Friday, Nov. 13.

Mrs. Lilla Matthews, 2356 E. 43d St., was hostess to the United Budget club Thursday evening at her home. The club will give a chicken dinner Thursday evening, Nov. 13, at the home of the president, Mrs. Lammox, 5621 Scoville Ave., suite 12.

Mrs. Brent Stewart, E. 82d St., proved a delightful hostess to the I. R. C. club. Special guests were Mrs. Minerva Taylor, Mrs. Ed Gales and Mrs. La Pearle Adams. Mrs. Stewart served a very delicious luncheon in graceful style.

Mrs. Rebecca Bryant, Beckman Ave., delightfully entertained the Book and Thimble club.

The Council of Colored Women will hold an annual mass meeting Sunday, Nov. 22, at 3 p. m. at St. John A. M. E. church, 40th and Central. A number of our leading ministers and citizens will be on the speaking program, announcement of which will be made later. The mass meeting ends the council's yearly membership drive. The group bringing in the largest number of members will be presented with a $5 gold piece. Mrs. E. P. Boyd, president of the council, presented the object and the work of the organization in a very creditable manner before the Mothers club of the Cedar Y. The members were interested listeners and pledged their support to the new girls' home at 2215 E. 30th St. Miss Clara Alexander, a teacher in the public schools, will address the members of the council at the Cedar Y. Tuesday evening, Nov. 17. She will give an interesting account of her trip abroad. The public is invited. Mrs. E. P. Boyd is president and H. Huff Ellis reporter.

The Fortnightly club met at the home of Mrs. Lela Epps, 2231 E. 57th St., and an interesting paper was read by Mrs. Frazier. The following officers were elected for the year: Mrs. Eliza Scott, president; Mrs. J. Heavelow, vice-president; Mrs. Lela Epps, secretary; Mrs. L. Grant, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Carrie Crawford, treasurer; Mr. Frazier, chaplain; Mrs. Carrie Blue and Mr. Gibson, flower committee; Mrs. Van Alstyne, sick committee; Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Rogers, program committee. The hostess served a delicious luncheon. Next meeting with Mrs. Gibson, 2226 E. 82d St.

The Get-Together club held a pleasant meeting at the home of Mrs. Bessie Brown, 2215 E. 100th St., Wednesday, Nov. 4. The afternoon was delightfully spent in social pastime, business being omitted. The guests included Mrs. Seay, Mrs. Audrey Gibson and a sister of Mrs. Drysdale of Americus, Ga. The hostess served a sumptuous luncheon. Next meeting with Mrs. Beulah Cox, 3201 Clinton Ave. Mrs. Pearl Williams is president and Mrs. Alice Drysdale secretary.

The Jay Bee club is planning a winter roast for the latter part of the month.

The Current Events club met Wednesday with Mrs. Mabel Briggs on Edmond Ave. Great enthusiasm was shown by a group of young Cleveland teachers at the organization of the Zeta chapter of the Sigma Gamma Rho Monday evening in the Phyllis Wheatley Association parlors by Miss Horner Wood, national organizer of Chicago, Ill. The goal of the organization is to establish scholarships. After a specially prepared dinner in the dining rooms of the P. W. A. the following officers were elected: President, Vivian Howard; vice president, Marguerite Norman; recording secretary, Beatrice Wright; corresponding secretary, Elsa Cox; Cox; treasurer, Clara Anderson; journalist, Waverley Gray; critic, Ruth Mitchell; sergeant-at-arms, Betty Foster; sponsor, Mrs. Fannie Suggs.

The Optic club No. 1 met with Mrs. Laura Parrish, E. 56th St., the new president. Mrs. Susie Taylor, presiding. Much business of importance was planned. The president requests the presence of every member at every meeting. This week's meeting was to be held Tuesday with Mrs. B. B. Richards, 2318 E. 57th St. The hostess, Mrs. Parrish, served a delicious repast which was enjoyed by all.

Bishop Phillips Returns

Bishop Charles Henry Phillips of the colored Methodist Episcopal church, after more than a month's absence in the West, has just returned to the city. Among the cities visited were San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Los Angeles, Santa Monica and other cities. The bishop is founder of his church in the West. He says the work grows and the churches are increasing greatly in membership and things material. The California conference, which is composed of churches in New Mexico, Arizona and California, met Oct. 1 in Phoenix, Ariz. The bishop reports a splendid session of that conference.

Bishop Phillips left the city Nov. 4 by way of Washington, D. C., for Winston-Salem, N. C., where he will speak for both races at 5 p. m. Nov. 8. On his return to the city he will hold three conferences. From Alabama the bishop will go to Detroit to attend the executive committee meeting of the Federal Council of the Church of Christ, and then return to Cleveland for the Christmas holidays.

Music Notes

St. Mark's choir presents its 20th Sunday night musicale Sunday, Nov. 15. Mrs. Mildred Courtney Carney, mezzo soprano, Columbus, Ohio; Miss Caroline Stone, pianist; Miss Lucille Jackson, soprano. Miss Jackson will be heard in a group of spirituals. Admission free. Dr. C. Lee Jefferson, minister; G. H. Ambrose, director.

The Mozart Glee club was forced to cancel its Chicago engagement, as the Chicago Unbrion Glee club was unable to offer a sufficient guarantee.

Church Notes

Christian Church (Phyllis Wheatley Annex)—The Missionary society met with Mrs. Mary Spruce and held a very helpful meeting, at which time the delegate, Mrs. J. M. Myers, made an interesting report of the convention, which was enjoyed by all. After business a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Mary Spruce.

Trinity school was well attended Sunday. Men's day was observed with a special program. William Dabney sang a solo, "When Mother Prayed," to the delight of all. A very good selection was read by Mrs. Gladys Talbot, "What Is a Gentleman?"

The pastor delivered an interesting sermon upon the theme, "Be Thou Therefore a Man." One young man came back to the church.

Our revival will begin Sunday. Preaching by Elder A. W. Davis of Kansas City, Kans., national evangelist of the Christian church.

Shiloh Baptist church held its cornerstone laying service Sunday. Over 5,000 people were in attendance, notwithstanding the cold weather. The Masonic lodges of the city were in attendance and laid the corner stone of the magnificent new home of Shiloh. Rev. Boston J. Prince, pastor, delivered an able address. The next two Sundays will include special dedicatory and other services which promise to be very interesting.

An old-fashioned revival is being held at Mt. Haven Baptist church, 3725 Cedar Ave. Rev. Richardson, evangelist, is speaker for the service. Special gospel singing, conducted by Mrs. Sh-mild, sister of Sunday, the great gospel singer. The meetings are under the auspices of the E. Y. I. C. Ole Fidos, president; Anna Gri-wold, song director, and Rev. C. H. Crable, pastor.

Thursday evening, Nov. 12, the second annual gathering of the "Stars" rendered a commendable program at Mt. Haven Baptist church, Cedar Ave. The numbers included selections from the Cleveland Bible institute sextet. Vocal solos by Captain Frye of the Mozart

Glee club, Prof. Prince Burke, Dr. Whitfield, Mrs. M. D. Dixon, and a violin solo by James Crable. The Musical Moment club and the Mt. Haven female quartet greatly pleased the audience with their melodies. Little Miss Juanita Thomas gave a wonderful interpretation of Paul Lawrence Dunbar, and Mrs. Itoa Harper a reading on "Mr. Brown Has a Halfcent," which added immensely to the enjoyment of all. Rev. H. C. Crable, pastor, and H. Huff Ellis, reporter.

Masonic Affairs

The Deacons' Corner gave a progressive whist party at their clubrooms last Saturday evening.

Shiloh Baptist church laid the corner stone of their building, formerly the Jewish temple, at the corner of 54th and Scoville, Sunday afternoon under the auspices of William T. Boyd lodge, F. and A. M. Grand Master Hall of Cincinnati, Ohio, was the principal speaker, assisted by Senior Grand Warden H. L. Adams, Laymon Brown, grand treasurer, and W. B. Dowling, grand secretary. Allen Cole was the official photographer. A procession was formed at Prince Hall Masonic temple, headed by the Masonic band, Emmanuel commandery, as escort to the Blue lodge, marched to the old home of Shiloh church on E. 20th St., thence to the new home on E. 55th St.