Federation Meeting at Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, July 3.—Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, wife of former Councilman Thomas W. Fleming, was unanimously re-elected president of the Ohio Federation of Colored Women's Clubs for another two years' term at the close of one of the most interesting sessions of the organization's history. Other officers re-elected were Mrs. Ethelyn Collins, Dayton, first vice president; Mrs. Maude Chismon, Columbus, second vice president; Mrs. Lulu Brown, Urbana, third vice president; Mrs. Lulu Brown, Urbana, recording secretary; Mrs. Mae Basey, Cleveland, assisting recording secretary; Mrs. Sophia Bailey, Cleveland, financial secretary; Mrs. Mary Taylor Browne, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hattie Moss, Lima, treasurer; Mrs. Ollie Branch, Columbus, parliamentarian; Mrs. Rhoda Johnson, Youngstown, historian; Mrs. Mollie Fowler, Columbus, organizer; Mrs. Cornelia Nickens, Cleveland, auditor; Mrs. Luella White, Wilberforce, editress of the Queen's Garden, published every other month in the interest of the federation; Mrs. Alberta Davis, Lima, head of the music department; Mrs. Estelle R. Davis, Cincinnati, member-at-large in the interest of the educational department, and Mrs. Singleton, Delaware, chaplain.

Among the outstanding actions taken by the convention was the donation of 1,000 books to the Girls Industrial home of Lancaster, Ohio, and the giving of two scholarships, one to a student of Ohio State university and the other to a Wilberforce university student.

One of Cleveland's junior clubs won the Mae Hinton loving cup for bringing in the largest amount of money. Miss Carolyn Glover, Columbus, still holds the musical contest cup. Too much cannot be said in praise of the splendid entertainment by the ladies of Youngstown, a pleasure long to be remembered by the federation guests.
