

NEW HAMPSHIRE

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.

By Robert Cooper Sr.

Professor William Leo Hansberry, specialist in archeology and anthropology, department of history, Howard university, Washington, D. C., was the guest speaker at the People's Baptist church on Pearl St. Chauncey Northern, teacher of music in the city of New York and who has studied in Italy, rendered two groups of solos, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ida Northern. The speaker was introduced by Louis G. Gregory, representative of the National Interracial Amity committee of the Bahais of the United States and Canada. Following the address remarks of appreciation were given by Phillip A. Marangella. A lawn party was given under the auspices of the Sunday school of People's Baptist church at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Tilley, 152 Dennett St. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Gundy of Haverill, Mass.; Mrs. Lula Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips from Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright of Florida, Miss Dorothy Philip of New York city, Prof. Leo Hansberry of Howard university, Washington, D. C.; Louis G. Gregory, Phillip A. Marangella and Mrs. Ludmila Bech. told of Brooklyn, N. Y.