underwent an operation for tonsillitis and is recovering rapidly at her home.
"Dams Rumor" has it that Miss Virginia Allen operator of a beauty shop in Buffalo, is betrothed to A. D. Price, who is well known in Cleveland, being formerly employed at the Empire Savings and Loan company here. Miss Allen is a former Cleveland.

David S. Ingalls, popular Republican candidate for governor; Congressman Chester Bolton, State's Attorney Gilbert Bettman and other Republican candidates are expected to speak at the mammoth old-fashioned basket picnic to be given at Gordon park, Thursday, Sept. 8, under the auspices of the East End Political club, the 15th and 19th Ward Republican clubs, according to the announcement made by Councilman George, president of the East End club.

Race Aviators Cleveland Bound A telegram to Dr. Ernest Hall, pastor of East Zion Baptist church, from Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grant, Los Angeles, Calif., former Clevelanders, announced the departure Saturday of Lieut. William J. Powell and Irvine E. Wells, Los Angeles Race aviators, who are Cleveland bound to participate in the annual international aviation races.
Monday they had not been heard from by Dr. Hall and his friends.

The Housekeepers club of Mt. Zion temple of which Mrs. Bessie Randall Johnson is president, gave a miniature carnival last week which was a success.
She was assisted by Mrs. Susie Tyler, Mrs. Leland French, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Walter Hines, Mrs. Mabel Higgs, Mrs. George Washington, Mrs.
Helle Bennett, Mrs. Ella Robinson and many other ladies. A harvest festival is being planned by a group of ladies.
Mrs. Martha Harris, church secretary, and Mrs. Althea Price have gone to Chicago to visit Mrs. Ola Snowden Jenkins. Mr. Dixon has the class of Mrs.
Evelyn Kowarski. The latter is spending her vacation in Washington with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H.
Jewsey had as their guests Sunday in their pews Mr. Dorsey's brother and wife from Detroit. Miss Blanche Johnson has returned from New York. She is one of Cleveland's popular school teachers. Miss Reba Cox returned home with the charming daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Russell Brown, Alice Elaine, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. and Charles Smith of Wilberforce. They also will be the guests of their daughter for the rest of their vacation. Alice Elaine is a senior in Glenview high school and the only Race member of the school's house of representatives. Attorney Alexander H. Martin is chairman of Mt. Zion's anniversary committee. The celebration will take place in September. It is the 65th of the church and the seventh of the present pastor.

Mrs. Kate Lawrence Royal Hostess The pretty home of Mrs. Kate Lawrence, 218 E. 90th St., was the scene of a very colorful gathering Thursday afternoon when she delightfully entertained at bridge. Among the guests were Mesdames Ruth Glenn, Subie Ramey, Erma Morris, Enoch Hubbard, Lula Smith, Ira Blackburn, Elizabeth Moore, Mable Ingram, Beale Brown, Helen Hart, Hampton, Va.; Laura Pike, Cincinnati, Ohio, and Ethel Gassaway.
Mrs. Hubbard was awarded the first prize, Mrs. Morris, the second, and Mrs. Moore, the trophy. A very delicious repast was served.
Mrs. Robert McTier, 243 E. 92d St., accompanied by her daughter, Lavonia, and Gwendolyn Clayton and John Morgan, returned from a delightful motor trip to Philadelphia and Atlantic City.
Mrs. Erma Lee Morris, popular matron and member of the Ritz Thirteen Bridge club, E. 124th St., accompanied by her daughters, Mary and Edie Lee, are spending their vacation in Richmond, Va., visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Charlie Mae Jackson Robinson was honored with a linen shower Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker, 217 E. 101st St., in honor of her marriage to James H. Robinson, which occurred Aug. 25. Mrs. Robinson was the recipient of numerous gifts from friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are on a honeymoon trip to Dayton and other points in Ohio.

Old-fashioned Basket Picnic
The East End Political club, Councilman Clayborne George presiding, held one of its old-time rally meetings at Temple Baptist church Friday night and decided to sponsor an old-fashioned basket picnic to be held at Gordon park, Thursday, Sept. 8. Members and friends of the 15th and 19th Ward Republican clubs have been especially invited to join in the mammoth affair which promises to eclipse all other picnics of the season. People who are employed are asked to bring their buskets filled to the brims to provide for those who will be there unable to prepare baskets. Councilman George asks for volunteer cars to provide transportation for those unable to pay their street carfare. Take E. 79th St. cars, most convenient to picnic grounds.

Mrs. Sarah E. Cole Entertains Mrs. Sarah E. Cole of Newton Ave., delightfully entertained at luncheon the Research club of which she is a member, Friday evening. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and pink festoons. Guests of honour were Miss Blanche M. Pore, Miss Louise McNair and the Misses Stores, sisters of Mrs. Cole. All the honour guests were public schoolteachers of St. Louis. Special guests were Mrs.
Elmer F. Boyd, Mrs. Lena C. Brown, Mrs. John Early, Mrs. T. J. Hicks, Mr.
John Hubbard, Mrs. C. P. Hunsicutt and Mrs. Hugh H. Williams to Cleveland; Miss Dora McNair, St. Louis; Mrs. Aaron of Florida, and Mrs.
Josephine Bishop of Oakland, Calif.
Mrs. Nona Price gave two dramatic readings. Mrs. Early gave an inspirational sketch of club women's activities in Cleveland.

Mrs. Anna Harding and J. D. Ferrell entertained at luncheon the Flint's baseball club at the beautiful new Harding home, 2303 E. 94th St. Rufus Grady, Fred Greer, Miss Ann Maddox and Evelyn James were the other guests present.

The old-fashioned barbecue given by the finance committee of the East End Political club at Antioch center Saturday evening for the benefit of the club's scholarship fund proved a very successful affair. Of course, nothing else could be expected since the affair was sponsored by Mrs. Lilly Mason, the energetic chairman of this important committee. Miss Margery Williams, the payment of whose scholarship and other expenses at Livingston college last year the club sponsored with great pride, is making good as an investigator for the Prospect-22d branch of the Associated Charities, it is said.

To Gordon Bunch, the theatrical genius, is due special praise for the successful production of the cast in "Rain," produced at the Ohio theater recently with Alice Brady as the leading lady. The cast included Genevieve Trites, Gordon Bunch, Orpha Ormes, Juanita Reynolds, Lucille Fernandez, Helen Steptoe, Lawrence Boyd, Lorrie Adams and Emma Wilcox.

A jolly motor party spending Sunday at On-the-Erie beach included Misses Jennie Boyd, Lucia Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon, Mrs. E. E. Essington, Al Gordon, Wolburne Oslin and Gilbert Wages.

The beautiful lawn of Mr. and Mrs.
Aaron Dupree, 2282 E. 91st St., was the scene of a very pretty garden party last Thursday, sponsored by group No.

3 of East Mt. Zion Baptist church, of which Mrs. Dupree is president. One hundred ladies, dressed in gown in the latest models, with attractive picture hats, were in attendance. The tables were beautifully decorated with natural flowers from Mrs. Dupree's garden. Among the ladies present were James L. J. Page, Jean McNeal, Bass-ford, Daisy Byers, Ruth Berry, Joseph Miles, Mamie Kindel, La. Palke, Gertrude Smith, Ethel Miles, Nettie Young, H. M. Dodd, Railroad Character, some H. J. Smerest, Watson, Lulu Trimmings of Jacksonville, Fla.; Strout, Kentucky; Miss Cleo Kindel, Dr. and Mrs. Robinson and several of the husbands of the ladies. It was acclaimed one of the most beautiful out-of-door affairs of the summer.

Mrs. J. E. Hubbard Entertains Mrs. Eloise Hubbard, the popular wife of J. E. Hubbard, 258 E. 86th St., entertained with a very pretty bridge party Friday afternoon. Those present were Misses Kate Lawrence, Elizabeth Moore, Subie Ramey, Belle Jones, Ruth Glenn, Ethel Gassaway, Mamie Copes, Ina Blackburn, Juanita Morning, Sallie Hogan, S. Bailey, Laura Fife of Springfield, Ohio. The award of prizes were made to Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Morning. Miss West was presented a gift for keeping the scores. The pink color scheme was carried out in the prizes and menu. All expressed themselves as having spent a most delightful time.

East Mt. Zion Baptist Church
Dr. Ernest Hall, the pastor of East Mt. Zion Baptist church, struck back last night at Rev. Mack, pastor of the Church of God in Christ, in his sermon Sunday morning on "Holiness." Rev.
Mack, who is conducting a series of tent meetings at 105th and Quebec, criticized the Baptists and Methodists' stand on the subject of "Holiness." It is said. Dr. Hall is leaving Sunday night on the 10 o'clock New York Central for St. Louis, Mo., where he is to join a party of friends who are to attend the National Baptist convention in Houston, Tex. Before returning he will go to Springfield, Ill., to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. Sally. Dr.
T. S. Harten, pastor of the Holy Trinity Baptist church, Brooklyn, N. Y., who will be here in attendance at the National Baptist at Shiloh Baptist church, will occupy the pulpit for Dr.
Hall on the morning of the 11th, and Dr. L. A. Pinkston, of Atlanta, Ga. also a delegate to the convention and convention of the Baptist, will occupy the pulpit at night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hubbard, E. 86th St., were pleasantly surprised by having as guests for a few hours en route to Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs.
Ike Beason of Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. George Edwards, 219 E. 103d St., is able to be out after being confined to her home with a severe attack of pleurisy.

Walter Finney, 2157 E. 74th St., is visiting his mother and friends in Macon, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Moore, 2330 E.
97th St., had the pleasure of entertaining as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs.
Marlin F. Frazier of the Walnut Hills Christian church, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Dr. Ernest Hall and the choir of East Mt. Zion Baptist church were guests of Mt. Haven Baptist church, Rev. C. H. Crabbe, pastor, Sunday afternoon at Mt. Haven's anniversary service.
Announcement is made of the secret marriage of two of our popular members of the younger set on Saturday, Aug. 20. Miss Mary L. Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tenus Brown, 2190 E. 103th St., became the bride of Solomon Lester, son of Mrs. Nancy Lester, 210 E. 94th St. The news of the marriage was received with much delight by the parents of the newlyweds, as well as the couples' many friends. They went home to their many friends at 210 E. 94th St.

Dr. John L. Ford and Professor Collier of the A. and I. Institute, Jacksonville, Fla., passed through the city last week and called upon their friend, Dr. Ernest Hall. They left Saturday morning for Chicago, where they are spending a few days prior to their departure for the National Baptist convention, which will convene in Houston, Tex., Sept. 12.

Mrs. Grace Willis Thompson, Earle Ave., is in Dayton, directing a chorus to be presented to the public in the near future.

Mrs. William R. Jackson, 10513 Everton Ave., and Miss Mabel Early, 1200 E. 111th St., one of Cleveland's most capable schoolteachers, returned Sunday morning from a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

It is reported that the Church of God in Christ, formerly at Central Ave. and E. 7th St., has purchased the old St. James A. M. E. property on Hudson Ave. Rev. Mack L. Jonas, the pastor, is conducting a tent meeting at the corner of 105th and Quebec Ave.

Mrs. Fannie Suggs and sister, Miss Willie Shock, E. 98th St., motored to Detroit, Mich., for the week-end.

The dance given by the Midwesterners at the fashionable Crystal Slipper ballroom on Euclid Ave. proved quite a financial adventure. The proceeds were to go toward financing the Crisis magazine of the N. A. A. C. P. Credit for the success of the affair is due to the efforts of the following members of the Midwesterners: Miss Thelma Louise Taylor, chairman; Mrs. Lilla Jones, Miss Vivian Howard and Miss Erick Hague. Al Waldon and his band lived well.

Mrs. S. C. Campbell, wife of the pastor of Cedar Ave. Christian church, attended the annual conference in Paducah, Ky. She reports a fine session.
Dr. A. L. Boone, pastor of Shiloh Baptist church, took a week's rest at Yellow Springs, Ohio, recuperating in preparation for the many duties that will be required of him during the coming National Baptist convention.

Harriet French, daughter of Mrs.
George French, entertained a few of her young friends in honor of her 12th birthday. Harriet, as usual, proved a charming little hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry, Imperial Ave., entertained the Royal Civic club at their home Tuesday evening.

An Ingalls-Bolton-Norton Republican club was organized at the residence of Mrs. Della Wilson, 216 E. 31st St. The sponsors are Misses Wilson, Mattie Hedger, Louise Fuller, Lacey Scott, Mary Tasanier, Cora Hyrd and Betty Campbell. The speakers were Miss Jane E. Hunter, executive secretary of the Phillips Wheatley association; Attorney Perry A. Frey, Republican candidate for prosecutor, and Juriman C.
Hudson. Refreshments were served after the meeting. The clubs meet every Friday night.

Mrs. Susan Haley, wife of George Haley of Emory Ave., West Park, died, and funeral services were held at St.
Paul A. M. E. church, where she had served as a faithful member for eight years. Besides the husband, two daughters and one son survive her.

Walter C. White, 6425 18th St., Louisville, Ky., was guest of Mrs.
Mary Barrett and daughter, Mrs. L. E.
Hickey, 10213 Hudson Ave., for the week-end, motoring in his new Lincoln car on his way to Canada.

Cuyahoga county court of common pleas by the following: Eallie Mae Rogers, 2170 E. 65th St., vs. Ben Rogers, 2332 E. 63d St.; Vilena Lacey, 1851 Caldwell Rd., Cleveland Heights, vs. Thomas Lacey, 5116 Quincy Ave.

Mrs. Cora Mitchell, E. 78th St.; Mrs.
Ella Hamilton, E. 59th St., and Mrs.
Ella Offer, E. 83d St., returned from St. Louis, Mo., where they attended the annual convention of the A. U. K. and D. of. A. Mrs. Offer had the honor of being elected national president of the officers' council. The Cleveland ladies were guests of Mrs.
L. E. Draine while in St. Louis.

Splendid audiences turned out at Mt. Zion temple to listen to their fine pastor, Dr. Russell Brown, who with his family have just returned from spending their vacation in Paris, Ill.; Terre Haute, Indianapolis and Richmond, Ind., and Wilberforce, Ohio.
Mrs. Brown is the daughter of Prof.
Charles Smith of Wilberforce university.

Antioch Baptist church brought her clean-up drive to a successful close Sunday. The financial part of the drive was in the capable hands of John M. Smith and Mrs. Florence D.
Cochran who deserve special praise for their fine success in putting across their program. For the past two weeks several of the unemployed members of the church volunteered their services to thoroughly clean, paint and redecorate the church building. Their work made possible a lovely and pleasing appearance in the interior of the building. Rev. W. H.
McKinney was absent from the pulpit Sunday. He filled the pulpit for Dr.
R. L. Brady in Detroit. Rev. W. G.
Thurston, the veteran assistant pastor, preached in the absence of the pastor. Antioch is busy preparing for the national Baptist convention at Shiloh Baptist church next week.
Come and worship with us, Central Ave. and E. 24th St.

Mrs. Edna Lee of the East End
M. E. church, E. 125th St., and Mrs.
Alberta Pulley of St. John A. M. E. church, well known evangelists, are holding a series of successful revival meetings at the Charitable Rescue mission, 2538 E. 50th St.

The death of Albert Trimble, 2154 E. 83d St., for many years night engineer at the Central Ave. Bath house, was a shock to his host of friends.
Mr. Trimble has been in ill health for some years, however.

James Milliner, who has enjoyed the reputation of being one of the most faithful and painstaking patrolmen in the Cleveland sanitary department for many years, was among the 10 or more men given an indefinite lay-off by the present city administration, the result of the new reorganization plan. Robert Drake, another faithful patrolman, remains.

One of the most unique affairs at Burton's Bathing beach was an outline in the form of a fish fry sponsored by the Metropolitan club of Cleveland Sunday.

One of the most delightful surprises of the season at Burton's Beach was the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Ira F.
Lewis and their family of Pittsburgh, who met a party of Clevelanders composed of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Hodges and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hogan. Mr. and Mrs. Holly Reed, also of Pittsburgh, arrived a bit later and joined the party.

After 10 days of rollicking fun, the Women's Physical Culture club from Frederick Douglass Community center, Toledo, broke camp on Tuesday. This group occupied six cottages. The daily routine, under the direction of Mrs.
Ladonia Speedwell, supervisor of womens and girls work at Douglass center, consisted of bathing, swimming, physical culture exercises, tennis, volleyball, indoor hall, hiking and dancing.
Special features were enjoyed every day. On Wednesday Mrs. Hinton, the hostess, directed a sight-seeing tour of Ashtabula and the harbor. The club members were hostesses at a barbecue and stunt party Friday night. A marshmallow roast was enjoyed. On Sunday the club responded to a special request from the Metropolitan club committee to give its physical culture revue. Attorney Selmo Glenn of Cleveland made the presentation. The hearty applause and the clicking of cameras well repaid the ladies for their efforts. Mrs. Speedwell was highly complimented by guests seeking personal recommendations for physical reconstruction.

Mrs. Henderson, Miss Ford and James Aikens of Perrysburg, Ohio, motored over Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Aikens in Douglass center camp. Mrs. Aikens will remain another week at Duck Inn cottage. Mrs. Mary Johnson of Jefferson, Ohio, spent the week-end as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Speedwell and Miss Marie Speedwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gant and Charles Gant of Toledo spent the week-end as guests of their mother, Mrs. Viola Gant of Douglas center camp.

Registering on Sunday for a week's sojourn at Burton's Beach were Mrs.
Bessie A. Ragland, Miss Betty Lewis, Mrs. Ruth Haines, Mrs. Hattie Clayborn, Mrs. Mamie Deener, Chauncey Stanton, Belva Clayborn of Sharon and Virginia Brooks of New Castle.

Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. Leon Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Robinson, Attorney and Mrs. William B. Saunders, Mr. and Mrs. Strong, Mr. and Mrs.
Elmer Cheeks, J. F. Morning, Mr. and successful carnival on the lawn of Mt.

Zion Congregational temple, beginning Wednesday and closing Saturday.

Optimistic Club No. 1 will hold its initial meeting of the new fiscal year at the home of Mrs. Haynes, sister of Mrs.
Fannie Wallace, in E. 77th St., Tuesday evening, Sept. 6. Mrs. Della Offer is president.

Boydston Post News

Wallace E. Stokes, commander, and Charles Taylor, adjutant, of Lemuel T.
Boydston post were delegates to the state American Legion convention at Toledo. Harry Walker, the energetic past commander and member of the county trustee board of the Legion, was also present. Lemuel T. Boydston post of Cleveland, Charles Blace post of Columbus and the Detroit post drum corps, visitors, made fine showings in the parade. The convention went on record in favor of the immediate payment of the bonus, and passed a resolution against the treatment of the R. E. F. in Washington. Col. Ralph Cole of Findlay was elected the new state commander and Lima, Ohio, was chosen as the place for next year's convention. The annual barbecue and picnic of Lemuel T. Boydston post will be held on Labor day at Comrade Messingale's farm.

Robert Nolan, the gifted musician, gave a musical program of splendid merit at St. Paul's A. M. E. Zion church, 55th and Quincy, Saturday evening.

Misses Emma and Georgla Fields write friends of their enjoyable vacation being spent at Camp Alwater, Brookfield, Mass. Both are members of Mt. Zion choir.
