

said Henderson could swim a little. The body was recovered within an hour by city firemen and police officers. Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson; one sister, Virginia, and three brothers, Donald, Richard and Theodore, at home. The deceased was a member of Union Baptist church and was a Times-Recorder newsboy.

ZANESVILLE NEWS

By HARRY R. STOTTS
871 Clifford Ave.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, July 7.—The Ohio State Association of Colored Women's clubs held their annual convention in Zanesville the past week at the Union Baptist church. Approximately 200 delegates from throughout the state were in attendance with the local clubs, which have 70 members. Mrs. Bertha Tate, chairman of the local organization, and Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming of Cleveland, president of the state organization, presided during the meetings. Excellent program during the week.

During the election of officers, the following Zanesville members were honored with election to junior department: Miss Mildred Wallace, second vice president, and Miss Helen Scott, historian. At the final meeting, other Zanesville members were honored by election: Mrs. Bertha Tate, second vice president; Mrs. Helen Curtis, historian, and Mrs. Naomi Young, pianist. The convention brought many highly educated men and women of great influence to Zanesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Young spent the week-end in Dayton, Ohio, visiting among relatives and friends.

Walter White, executive secretary of National Association for Advancement of Colored People, who was a speaker at the Ohio Federated club at the Union Baptist church last Tuesday night, held a conference with the officers of local branch of N. A. A. C. P. The Zanesville branch is looking forward to entertaining the Ohio convention, to be held in Zanesville, Sept. 22, 23 and 24, bringing many prominent persons from Ohio and the nation.

The Missionary society of Park St. Wesleyan Methodist church held a special meeting Thursday, July 6, at the Park hotel. Sewing for African missionary workers, and other business matters.

Those having news for this column should send all items to Harry R. Stotts, 871 Cliffwood Ave., or phone 3363-J, by Thursday of each week.

Miss Jane Hunter, matron of Phyllis Wheatley Institute at Cleveland, was a house guest the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thornton M. Tate, 243 W. Muskingum Ave.

Park St. Wesleyan Methodist church cottage prayer meeting was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Emma Engelke of Turner St.

A Fourth of July outing was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harris of Mill Run Pl., under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the St. Paul A. M. E. church, of which Mrs. Ada Brown is chairman. Barbecue and amusements were enjoyed.

Myrtle Holbert of Hanover, Ohio, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Rachel Curtis of W. Main St. the past week.

The get-together building committee of the Park St. Wesleyan Methodist church will be arranged Friday night at the Bible study, to be held at the Park hotel.

Seeking relief from the intense heat, Charles William Henderson Jr., age 14, of 13 Hazlett Ct., ventured into deep water while bathing in Muskingum river, near Sixth St. bridge, and was drowned early Friday afternoon. Companions