

Charming Visitor

MISS WINIFRED PHILLIPS

Affectionately called "Freddie" by her friends, hails from St. Louis, Mo. With her mother, Mrs. Azalia Phillips, "Freddie" came to Chicago to visit the World's Fair, en route to Wellesley college, where she will be a senior this year. Mrs. Phillips is a lifelong friend of Editor Abbott, the two having graduated in the same class at Hampton. Saturday Editor Abbott entertained with a luncheon for Mrs. Phillips and her daughter, then took them on a sight-seeing tour to Wilmette, where they visited Bahai Temple. The Rolls-Royce was at the disposal of these friends during their stay here. Miss Phillips left for school Saturday night, and her mother returned to St. Louis Sunday morning.
