

URBAN LEAGUE COMMITTEE PASSES THE HALF-WAY MARK

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 6.—More than sixty men and women representing every profession and type of business enterprise have signified their interest in the National Urban League's Labor Program as sponsored by the "Committee of One Hundred for Negro Workers."

The following are additional names of persons since our last release — each mail increases the quota:

G. D. Rogers, president, Central Industrial Insurance Co., Tampa, Florida; A. W. Dent, superintendent, Flint-Goodridge Hospital of Dillard University, New Orleans, Louisiana; Dr. M. W. Dogan, president, Wiley College, Marshall, Texas; Dr. Leslie Pinckney Hill, president, Cheney Training School, Cheney, Pennsylvania; Prof. A. C. Griggs, acting president, Haines Institute, Augusta, Georgia; Dr. DeNorval Unthank, Practicing Physician, Portland, Oregon; Dean W. T. B. Williams, Dean of College Department, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama; F. B. Ransom, manager, The Mme. C. J. Walker Manufacturing Co., Inc., Indianapolis, Indiana; Dr. A. S. Clark, principal, Gillespie Training School, Cordele, Georgia; S. W. Green, supreme chancellor, Knights of Pythias, New Orleans, Louisiana; C. H. Douglass, realtor and owner of New Douglass Theatre, Macon, Georgia; Captain Alvin J. Neely, registrar, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama; W. S. Hornsby, general manager, Pilgrim Life Insurance Company, Augusta, Georgia; P. H. Stone, State Agent for Negro Work, Georgia State Industrial College, Industrial College, Georgia; Dr. J. W. Holley, president, Georgia Normal and Agricultural College, Albany, Georgia; Prof. H. C. Trenholm, president, Teachers College, Montgomery, Alabama; Pres. M. S. Davage, president, Clark University, Atlanta, Georgia; Miss Clayda J. Williams, Business woman, St. Louis, Missouri; Dr. Kelsey L. Pharr, leading undertaker, Miami, Florida; Pres. I. S. Young, Langston University, Langston, Oklahoma; Pres. Benjamin F. Hubert, Georgia State Industrial College, Industrial College, Georgia; Dr. M. W. Collier, president, Florida Normal and Collegiate Institute, St. Augustine, Florida; Grant Smith, leading business man, Muskogee, Oklahoma; Dr. R. Reche Williams, practicing physician, Miami, Florida; Prof. George W. Carver, Director Research and Extension Department, Tuskegee, Institute, Alabama; Rev. Elbert W. Moore, minister, Second Baptist church, Columbus, Ohio; Rev. Charles E. Browne, minister, Baltimore, Maryland; William Anderson, prominent business man, Baltimore, Maryland; Dr. Joseph C. Briscoe, principal, Vocational High School, Baltimore, Maryland; Dr. E. T. Belsaw, dentist, Mobile, Alabama; Col. L. D. Lyons, leading business man, Austin, Texas; T. M. Fletcher, business man, Akron, Ohio.