

CINCINNATI NEWS

By MARION M. HUBBARD
4 Lincoln Terrace

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 15—Last Wednesday morning M. C. Clarke was in Columbus, Ohio at ten a. m. for a conference with Mr. Poulson in regard to an appointment.

Bernie Meyers, popular Pullman employee has been confined at his home due to illness. Mr. Meyers resides on East Linn Street in Covington, Ky.

Saturday night Miss Little Cook was the charming little hostess at a birthday party given her at the Edgemont Inn. Covers at dinner were laid for sixteen persons. Afterwards they were joined by a number of their friends for the dancing party.

Miss Josephine Summers and Miss Jean Reynolds of Columbus, O. were here as the week-end guests of Mrs. Alma Palmer.

Saturday night the Indianapolis Y. W. C. A. Volleyball team played the local team on the Ninth Street Y. M. C. A. floor. The local team won. After the game the visitors were entertained at supper at the Edgemont Inn. The guests were indulged at cards. And later in the bachelor quarters of Penn Ziegler the visitors were treated to a gay party. At the banquet table just at the end of the tasty supper each member of the Indianapolis team was presented a linen handkerchief to match the color of her dress.

Chester Greene spent last week here and returned home to Columbus, Ohio Sunday.

Mrs. Camille Cole was hostess to a small group of her friends whom she entertained at the Cotton club on last Sunday night.

The Artists' guild met on Monday night at the apartment of Miss Gayle Perry. Attorney Theodore M. Berry was guest of the evening.

Monday morning the Churngold Breakfast club was entertained by Mrs. Genevieve Chenault. A lovely breakfast was enjoyed. Mrs. Bertha Jones and Mrs. Ella Saunders of Price Hill were also guests. Prizes were awarded the following winners: Mrs. Ella Saunders, Mrs. Mary Harding and Lee Johnson.

Mrs. Genevieve Graig was hostess on Monday morning to a tempting and delicious breakfast. Covers were laid for six for nine o'clock, service was prompt.

Mrs. Edward Hurst is recuperating from the effects of a recent operation at the General hospital. Mrs. Hurst has been removed to her home in Washington Terrace.

Monday the Non Parlielle Bridge club was the guest of Mrs. Catherine Bronston. Mrs. Abbey Crombley was also guest of the afternoon. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Rose Ware and Mrs. Martha Seymour.

Mrs. C. J. Turnell is on the sick list. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Just For Fun club was entertained at her home on Monday night by Mrs. Emma Smith hostess. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ruby Embry, Mrs. Pearl Marie French and Miss Sophronia Braden.

Mrs. Ethel Humphrey Green of Covington has recovered from her recent illness and returned to work Tuesday.

Mrs. Maggie Smith was delightfully entertained on Tuesday her birthday when Mrs. Smith was hostess to a party of forty of her friends. The evening was spent at cards and dancing. A sumptuous repast was laid for the party.

The City Federation of Clubs met Tuesday afternoon at the club house on Chapel street.

Wednesday Attorney T. M. Berry drove to Columbus, Ohio for an initial hearing before the Labor Group of the bill which he sponsored that Dr. R. P. McClain presented.

The Negro Economic Security league was host to a dinner at 7:30 Thursday evening at the Edgemont Inn. Judge Robert Gorman was guest speaker. A most interesting and helpful discussion followed.

Alfred Hall has opened a store at Lincoln Ave. and Gilbert where the electric refrigerators which he sells are on display.

That popular young men's club known as the Owls held their regular weekly meeting in their headquarters at the Hotel Sterling on Thursday evening, March 7.

Final arrangements were made for a gala night for their annual dance which will be held Thursday evening, March 28 in the beautiful Cotton club. After all business was discussed, refreshments were partaken and bridge was played. Some of the most popular young men are members of this club, among whom are Harry Tolliver, president; Randall Moss, Charles Bryant, Clinton Bishop, Allie Walker, William Allen, Ted Rivers, Sylvester Woods, Nolan Thomas and Troy Hormen.

The Shriners were hosts to a big Smoker Thursday at the Edgemont Inn.

The regular meeting of the trustee board for the Home for Aged Colored Women on Lincoln Ave. was held Thursday afternoon at the home.

The Dorcas Relief Society was the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Branch on Thursday afternoon when she entertained them at her home on Myrtle Ave.

Miss Eva Dutton was hostess to a dinner party on Thursday at the home of her brother the Rev. Arthur Dutton. Covers were laid for eight. Mr. and Mrs. Grandison Embry were honor guests.

Friday evening at the forum held at the Y. W. C. A. at 7:30 Theodore M. Berry was discussion leader and was sponsored by the Girl Reserve committee. Subject was "Side Glances at Congress."

The Onawah club of the Y. W. C. A. gave a bridge whist party at the Y. First prizes were won by Mrs. Emma Smith and Mrs. White.

Mrs. Nannie Ellett is confined at her home ill again.

The Young Men's Progressive club held its regular monthly meeting on Friday at the home of Clarence Irving. A report of the annual dance which was given at the Cotton club last Thursday was made and other business was disposed of before the hosts took charge of the meeting. The hosts were Clarence Irving and Jesse Bryant.

Robert Donahue it is reported is spending some time in New York City.

Friday afternoon the Bolivian Art Club was entertained at her home on Park Avenue by Mrs. Etta Mason, hostess. The officers for the past year were unanimously elected for the ensuing year. A lovely party followed the business session.

The Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity held its business meeting at the 9th Street Y. M. C. A. on Saturday night. Herbert Miller was here for the week-end.

Dr. Henry Higgins of Chicago, Ill. was here for the week-end. His father Henry Higgins who has been confined for sometime at the Cincinnati General hospital was operated on again Saturday. Dr. Higgins reported that he believes this operation which his father has just undergone will bring him out in first class condition.

Old Cincinnati Dies

The passing of Charles Davis of Gilbert Avenue who lingered some time at death's door came as a shock to the friends and members of the family who had prayerfully awaited the end for the past several days of his critical condition. Relatives began to arrive here on Tuesday. Mr. Davis passed out of this life on Saturday at 12:20 noon. Funeral services were held at Union Baptist church on Saturday at two o'clock. Interment was at Suring Grove cemetery. There were fifteen cars in the procession and a church full of people bowed in grief at the funeral. Deepest sympathy is extended the widow Mrs. Estella Davis who has enjoyed the love and companionship of her late husband through forty years of uninterrupted marital happiness. Mr. Davis's age was seventy-one. His devoted wife, a child bride is little past fifty-five.

The following are a few of the friends who came on for the funeral of the late Charles Davis: In addition to the members of the family, Herbert Miller, Pittsburg; Mrs. Lillian Mallory, Dayton; Mrs. Etta Forts, Indianapolis; Dr. and Mrs. Brown, Indianapolis; Mrs. Catherine Harrison, Columbus, Ohio.

Saturday Drs. Beamon Stone and Robert Russell entertained Dr. Henry Higgins here from Chicago.

Delta Sigma Theta sorority Zeta chapter met with Attorney Elsie Austin on Saturday evening. Pokeno was played during the social hour, just before the business hour.

Mrs. Geneva Craig of Norwood was confined to her bed suffering the effects of a cold several days last week.

Bertram Hubbard here from Virginia for the week-end to take final social service examinations.

Mrs. Georgia Chenault has moved to Madisonville.

The Smart Set was hostess to a formal dancing party at the Edgemont Inn on Saturday night.

The Fireside Book club met on Saturday night as guest of Miss Ida Mae Rhodes. The book report for the evening was given by Alvin Thornton and Miss Rhodes. After the club business the hostess indulged her guests in some competitive games for which she awarded prizes to the following winners namely Miss Le Terri V. May, Dr. H. I. Wilson and Dr. Watson Fowler.

Mrs. Lottie Steele of Rockdale reported the death of her son on Wednesday night at New Brunswick, N. J. after a long illness. The remains were escorted to Ripley, Ohio for burial there on Sunday. Mrs. John Alexander the widow and the young man's mother returned here. Mrs. Alexander plans to stay for a few days after which she will return here again for a rest.

Funeral services were held at the Bethel Baptist church Monday afternoon for the late Mrs. Lillie Saunders.

Mrs. Ruby Embry and Mrs. Marion Pearle will sponsor a dinner on Saturday at the Brown's Chapel church. Funds for the benefit of $5.00v rally.

West End Branch Y. W. C. A. The newly elected officers of the Committee of Management of the West End Branch, Y. W. C. A. are: Miss Ida Mae Rhodes, chairman; Mrs. Eva I. Bowles, vice chairman and Mrs. Rose Betty Craig, secretary.

Boy Scouts

On March 8 Troop 315 Boy Scouts drum and hughle corps entertained the Scout Mothers at the Mt. Zion M. E. church on Walter and Altoona Sts. and Field Executive D. D. Nelson gave a very interesting talk on the progress of the troop. This year Troop 315 won a gold star and leads all other colored troops with a scout registration of 90. Scoutmaster Leon Phillips assisted by Assistant Scout Master W. W. Collins again were re-appointed leaders for the new scout year. At the Scout Mothers meeting held Friday in the church parlor Walter Moore was chosen to take a group of Scouts from Troop 315 to the Jamboree in Washington. The troop's 5th anniversary will be celebrated with a banquet on Friday night, April 26. Chief A. E. Roberts of the Cincinnati Boy Scouts has been asked to tell of his recent trip around the world by plane.