

general sectional chairman for her year's activity. It is hoped that all college women of the northern section will be continuously at work achieving the ideals and objectives of the National Association of College Women in their various communities, and at the end of the year's activities will be ready to give an account of their stewardship.

Jessie Harris Plans Work Of College Women

CINCINNATI, Nov. 19—Jessie Gross Harris, northern sectional director of the National Association of College Women, has just returned from Dayton, Ohio, where she conducted a sectional conference. Mrs. Harris is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati, and has majored in the field of guidance. She is the counselor and coordinator of guidance activities at the Harriet Beecher Stowe Junior high school.

The following officials are state representatives and general sectional chairman: Kentucky, Maude E. Brown; Ohio, Jessie S. Hathcock; Indiana, Eugenia D. Asbury; Michigan, Beulah Whitby; West Virginia, Julia L. Skinner. Representatives for Illinois and Wisconsin are to be appointed.

General sectional chairman: health, Dr. Lucy Oxley. Wilberforce; employment, Miss S. Katherine Blake, Columbus; public affairs, Attorney Elsie Austin, Columbus; youth movement, Wilberetta Pope, Cleveland; guidance, Margaret Parks, Louisville; recreation and music, Ruth E. Alston and Helen Greer, Cincinnati; delinquency and character formation, Dorothea C. Banks, Cincinnati; interracial relations, Benton B. Chauncey, Cleveland; educational policies, Lenora C. Lane, Wilberforce; housing, Essie Hague, Cleveland; publications, Estelle Wilson, Cincinnati; finance, Blanche Johnson, Cleveland.

Northern section's secretary and treasurer, Madalyn Robinson, corresponding secretary, Ann E. Mason, Cincinnati.

The general sectional chairmen will be assisted by local branch chairmen of each branch of the National Association in the northern section, and will study some phase of community life assigned to the