

Judge Watson To Address N. C. Meet

DURHAM, N. C., July 22—When the fourteenth annual convention of the National Bar association meets here August 4-6 inclusive, it will hear in one of the principal addresses at the evening mass meeting August 4. Judge James S. Watson of the Municipal Court of New York City. Judge Watson's subject will be "The Responsibilities of the Negro Lawyer to His People."

The other speaker at the August 4 meeting will be the Hon. Harry McMullen, attorney general of North Carolina.

The session will be held on the campus of North Carolina college.

Among the discussion leaders will be Belford V. Lawson Jr., counsel for the New Negro Alliance of Washington, D. C.; M. T. Van Hecke, dean of the law school of the University of North Carolina; Charles H. Houston, special counsel for the N.A.A.C.P.; Richard E. Westbrook, Chicago, counsel; Albert C. Gilbert, president of the Harlem Lawyers association; Dr. Robert C. Weaver, United States Housing Authority; Elsie Austin, assistant attorney general of the State of Ohio; Eunice H. Carter, assistant district attorney, New York City, and representatives of Howard, Terrell and Kent law schools.

The keynote address will be delivered by President William L. Houston.