Negro Congress Plans Fight On Army Jim Crow The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Oct 9, 1943; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender pg. 6

Negro Congress Plans Fight On Army Jim Crow

CLEVELAND - The na-tional executive board meeting of the National Negro here Congress last week adopted a six-point program to eliminate jim-crow in the armed forces, called for the speedy termi-nation of the war by the immedi-ate opening of a second front in launched a or the 1944 Western Europe, a campaign and I n for national elections.

The program outlined to abolish discrimination in every branch of the fighting services embodied in the report of Edward E. Strong, executive secretary of the Congress and unanimously supported by the more than 70 board members and visitors present, called for: 1. Issuance of an executive order by the President to abolish jim-crow in every branch of the fighting services,

2. Introduction of a congressional bill to outlaw discrimination in the army, navy and air corps. w discrimination and air corps.

army, navy and ai 3. Establishment 3. Establishment of a National Committee to Abolish Jim-Crow in the armed forces consolidating the efforts of those organizations having

4. Petitioning the national bodies of the CIO and the AFL to incor-porate in their legislative program the campaign to democratize the armed forces. 5. The publication by the NNC of literature on all phases of jim crow in the armed services and outlining specific proposals to remedy these conditions.

6. The organization of a national delegation of 50 leading Americans to visit Washington for one week to visit Washington for one week to consider the problems of the Negro and the armed forces with the Navy and War Departments as well as with President Roosevelt.

Mayor Talks to Group

Among those present at the board meeting were: Dr. Max Yergan, of the Council on African Affairs and the Council on Arrican Anarrs and national president of the National Negro Congress; Atty, Conklin P. Collum, president of the Cleveland Council of the NNC; Atty, C. Fran-cis Stradford, Chicago; Atty, Le-Wilfred Bron Simmons, Detroit; Bron Simmons, Denors, Mrs. Elsie Harris, Washington; Mrs. Elsie Smith, Philadelphia; J. E. Jeffrey, CIO State, County and Municipal CIO State, County and Municipal Workers, Los Angeles; Frederick V. Field, Council for Pan-American Democracy; Pat Riley, Indiana State CIO Council; Mason 'Smith, San Antonio; Harry Smith, CIUC Steel Workers, Cleveland; Miss Winifred Norman, National Council of Negro Youth, New York; Mrs. Estelle Mas-sey Riddle, National Nursing Coun-cil of War Service; B. F. Gibson, Pittsburgh; 'Charles Baxter, 'Local 450, International United Furniture 450, International United Furniture Workers Association; Clarence Workers Association; Clarence Sharpe, NAACP, Cleveland; Mrs. Lethia C. Fleming, National Associ-ation for Colored Women's Clubs; Mrs. Thelma Marshall, Lake County Department of Welfare, Local 253, Cary, Ind

Gary, Ind. Mayor Frank J. Lausche of Cleve-land, addressing the board, told of the appointment of a Cleveland Interracial Interracial committee to help in the prevention of racial disturb-ances such as have occurred in ances such as h other major cities ther major cities in recent months. In speaking to the 70 board members and visitors present from all parts of the country, Mayor Lausche stressed the need for interracial understanding and cooperation in attacking the problems of the Negro people. The mayor gave a first hand account of successful efforts to secure the employment of Negro war workers in Cleveland war plants.