

Broadway Sees '3 Is A Family' By Harlemites

NEW YORK. — The energetic group of theatre enthusiasts banded together under the banner of the American Negro theatre goes down to the Longacre theatre, Monday evening, April 17, to present "Three Is A Family" at the invitation of John Golden.

Justice Jane Bolln, Rev. Shelby Rooks and Paul Robeson head a list of distinguished commentators whose remarks will be published in the August issue of Theatre Arts Monthly magazine appraising the ANT.

"One of the grandest evenings I ever had in the theatre," remarked Mrs. John Hope when she witnessed the ANT "Three Is A Family" last December. Mrs. Fannie Robinson, a staunch supporter of the four year old group, made a financial contribution to its activities last fall, remarking, "The American Negro theatre is destined to make history."

Some of the ANT indorsers who have kept a careful eye on what's being done at the Library Theatre include Mrs. Dorothy Homer, Mrs. Geraldine Dismond, Mrs. Sara Dunston, Miss Shirley Graham, Mrs. Lou Von Harten, Miss Edna Thomas, Miss Ethel Waters, Dr. Lawrence Reddick, Dr. Alain Locke, Prof. J. Newton Hill, Samuel Allen, Prof. Sterling Brown and Joseph Wootten.
