

Mission Sends Four Members To Liberia

Four members of the Klay Liberia Mission Club will arrive in Las Palmas, Liberia, West Africa within the next two weeks. Mrs. Georgia DeB. Faulkner Carr, vice president and secretary announced this week.

The members, Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Timberlic and Mr. and Mrs. McClendon, were honored last week at a farewell reception and shower, where they gave outlines of their objectives among Liberian natives.

Rev. and Mrs. Timberlic sailed for Liberia last week and Mr. and Mrs. McClendon will leave this country by plane April 12.

At the reception President Amos M. Meredith gave a synopsis of his work and personal experiences in Africa, during a panel which included Rev. F. O. Raines and Mrs. DeBaptiste Carr, both familiar with the African scene.

The Klay Liberia Mission Club supports Dr. H. H. Jones in Klay, Liberia. Dr. Jones conducts a school for Liberians in which he teaches country development, agricultural and industrial.
