

Photo Standalone 4 -- No Title

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Aug 29, 1953;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender

pg. 3

MRS. JOY EARL is visiting the United States after a period of 14 months in Japan, where she has been teaching English literature at Keio university in Tokyo. During her stay in the far east Mrs. Earl traveled throughout Japan speaking to audiences on the principles of the Baha'i faith.