

BAHA'I TEMPLE located on the crest of Kikaya Hill, Gayaza Road, Kampala, Uganda, East Africa, is dedicated to the "oneness of mankind and religion." Services are devoid of ritual, featuring the scriptures of world religions and are held in this Temple of Light. It was built with donations from Baha'is now living in 257 countries, islands and the world.