

Calendar Of Events

friday, october 31

Records that appeal to all music lovers, from "Bop" to Classics will be played at a "Listen In" to be held at the Chicago Public Library, Chatham Branch, 822 E. 79th st., from 7 until 8 p.m.

"The Miser," a classical French comedy by Moliere, will be shown at the Loop College, 64 E. Lake st. 8 p.m. Tickets are two dollars.

saturday, november 1

An exhibit of portraits in oil and charcoal by Chicago artist Louisa M. Maturro opens in the Monroe Gallery of the Loop YWCA center, 37 S. Wabash ave. The gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

A women's group in support of the Black Coalition will hold a fund raising tea Saturday, 3 to 5 p.m. in the French Room of the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel. There will be a reception during the afternoon for the wives of coalition leaders and speeches by the Rev. Curtis Burrell and Mrs. C. T. Vivian.

Midget boxing, wrestling matches and a gym show will be presented by the Isham YMCA gymnasts at a "Soul Carnival" to be held at the Maxwell YMCA, 1012 W. Maxwell st. from 2:30 to 10 p.m. A talent show and carnival games will also be on the agenda.

"Voodoo In Chicago" will be explored and discussed by author and lecturer, Henry Cole at the College of Complexes, 105 W. Grand ave., 9 p.m. Cole, a former editor of Fate magazine, has just returned from England where he finished his book "The Cat's Horoscope Book."

A reunion for alumni of the Wright Campus of Chicago City College will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the O'Hare Officers Club, at Mannheim and Higgins Roads.

A week long "Festival of the Arts" will begin on the grounds of the Dixon State School. Artist from the world of painting and sculpture, as well as music and theatre arts, will combine to bring a week of rare delight to the Dixon School.

The Women's Guild of the Hermon Baptist Church, will present a fashion show at the McCormick YWCA, 1001 N. Dearborn st. 4 p.m. Donation is one dollar and fifty cents.

The Sessions and trustees of Hope Presbyterian Church presents the Sanctuary Choir's 10th annual music festival, featuring some of Chicago's finest artists, at the Shiloh Baptist Church, corner of 71st and Racine ave. at 4:30 p.m.

The CBS television film "And His Name Shall Be One" will be shown at the Sunday Afternoon program in the Baha'i House of Worship at 3:25 p.m., following the devotional service.

The Chicago Daily Defender thrives on community news. If your club or organization has news of special interest to the black community, please send notices of the dates to the Calendar Editor, the Daily Defender, 2400 S. Michigan ave., Chicago, Ill. 60616.